Program Overview

Domestic violence comes in many shapes. This program will demonstrate how the shapes of the domestic violence may need fit together from multiple professions to solve the puzzle of the criminal acts associated with Domestic Violence. Each profession from medical, law enforcement, legal as well as journalism will present their piece with evidence and case studies that demonstrate how each team works to investigate and uncover the evidence around criminal acts.

Target audience includes healthcare providers, legal professionals, social workers, teachers, clergy, prehospital and general community members.

CME Accreditation and Designation Statement

In support of improving patient care, the University of Pittsburgh is jointly accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) and the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), to provide continuing education for the healthcare team.
