There is more than one way to handle an Expedia dispute. The best method depends on the type of charge and how quickly you need a solution. Use customer service first

The fastest path is usually direct contact with Travelocity customer service. Many problems are caused by booking errors or refund timing, and those can sometimes be corrected without a formal escalation. This is also the best first move if you need to know how to submit a dispute with Travelocity for a recent charge.

The support team can tell you whether the issue belongs to Travelocity or to the supplier. Ask for a written review

A written review is helpful when the issue is complicated. It gives you a paper trail and makes it easier to show what happened if you need to escalate later. Written communication also helps if you are trying to dispute Travelocity charges across multiple bookings, because each reservation can be tracked separately. Work with the airline or hotel too

Travelocity may help freeze the transaction while the investigation is ongoing. 2 Canceled Booking but No Refund Many travelers cancel flights or hotels within the allowed window but never receive their refund. This is one of the most common dispute reasons. 3 Duplicate or Incorrect Charges Being charged twice for the same reservation or billed more than the agreed amount can justify a dispute. 4 Service Not Provided If a hotel, airline, or car rental provider failed to deliver the service (for example, the hotel was closed or the flight was canceled without rebooking), you may be eligible for a refund. 5 Misleading Booking Details If the actual service significantly differs from what was advertised (wrong room type, hidden fees, missing amenities), you can raise a complaint and request a charge review.

How the Travelocity Dispute Process Works When you initiate a dispute, Travelocity follows a structured review process: Initial Contact Start by contacting Travelocity customer support at 1-888-995-3965. Provide your itinerary number, booking details, and a clear explanation of the issue. Investigation With the Vendor Travelocity will open an investigation with the airline, hotel, or rental company to confirm the claim. Temporary Credit (If Applicable) In some cases, you can quickly call 1-888-995-3965 (Direct) to ask whether a temporary credit can be issued while the dispute is under review. Resolution or Denial After reviewing evidence from both sides, Travelocity may approve a refund, issue a partial credit, or deny the dispute based on fare rules and vendor policies.

Timeline Disputes can take anywhere from a few days to several weeks, depending on the vendor's response time. Can You Dispute an Travelocity Charge Through Your Bank? Yes. If Travelocity cannot resolve the issue, you may contact your bank or credit card issuer to file a chargeback. However, Travelocity generally recommends trying to resolve the dispute directly with them first. Important things to note before filing a bank dispute: A chargeback may take 30–90 days. Travelocity may suspend future bookings during the investigation. You'll need documentation (emails, receipts, cancellation confirmations). Calling 1-888-995-3965 before initiating a chargeback can often save time and prevent complications. Tips to Improve Your Chances of Winning an Travelocity
