

The Foundations for Success: Healthcare Leadership and Business Fundamentals

In the fast-changing healthcare industry, it takes more than your clinical expertise to navigate the complex environment of healthcare—business acumen and strong leadership skills are more important than ever before.

The Foundations for Success: Business, Leadership and Healthcare series, created by the Center for Healthcare Management at the University of Pittsburgh's School of Medicine and the Joseph M. Katz Graduate School of Business and the Katz Center for Executive Education, is designed to support you in building the skills and strategies for success. Join other healthcare professionals seeking to build on their foundational skills.

The University of Pittsburgh and the City of Pittsburgh are centers of excellence with world-renowned researchers and clinicians. Ranked in the top 10 nationally for funded research, Pitt is among the top U.S. public research universities. Connect with expert faculty and thought leaders who are at the forefront of industry, giving you access to their first-hand expertise.

The program launches March 1, 2023. Become a part of this dynamic learning experience today.

Learn more, contact:
executiveprograms@katz.pitt.edu

Visit our web page by clicking here or scanning code.

Become a Leader in Healthcare

Build your healthcare career equipped with foundational business, leadership and team development skills. Designed specifically for healthcare leaders, the three-part series delivered over four months will be practical, informative and relevant to your daily challenges. A convenient format allows you to fit the program into your busy schedule.

YOUR NEEDS, FIRST

Customized for you, our program can be completed in four months. With CME credit available, the program is delivered in primarily asynchronous remote sessions, with one scheduled synchronous remote session per month.

SERIES OVERVIEW

Three dynamic learning modules taught by faculty thought leaders in business healthcare. Primarily asynchronous remote sessions with once-a-month scheduled synchronous remote sessions starting at 6:30 p.m. A final capstone, synchronous remote session will conclude the series.

Series

Launch

March 1, 2023

Leadership Self-Awareness and Managing Change

6 hours / asynchronous
1 synchronous session on March 29, 2023

Teamwork and Collaboration

6 hours / asynchronous
1 synchronous session on April 26, 2023

Foundational Skills:

Evidence-based Decision Making

8 hours / asynchronous
1 synchronous session on May 24, 2023

Capstone: Best Practice with the Experts

Synchronous session on June 7, 2023

NAVIGATE CHANGE

Discover your leadership skills and build on that foundation. Create strategies and manage the change around you. Become the manager of organizational change in the workforce.

LEAD EFFECTIVE TEAMS

Improve your communication, negotiation, and conflict management skills. Implement new strategies and initiatives. Become a voice in your industry or organization.

MAKE EVIDENCE-BASED DECISIONS

Put forth your understanding of healthcare processes to make informed, evidence-based decisions. Develop strategies that your consumers and constituents want and need.

CONNECT AND DISCOVER

Led by the faculty within Katz MBA, rated among the best graduate programs by Financial Times and The Economist, the Foundations for Success series offers a premier path to your business and leadership success.

The next program launches March 1, 2023.

For more information, please email executiveprograms@katz.pitt.edu

Web: tinyurl.com/executive-health-leadership

This activity is approved for the following credit:
AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™.

University of Pittsburgh

A partnership between the Katz Graduate School of Business and the School of Medicine