

RAD CON RXN - 11/18/24 (12:00pm - 3:30pm)

The course met the stated objectives.

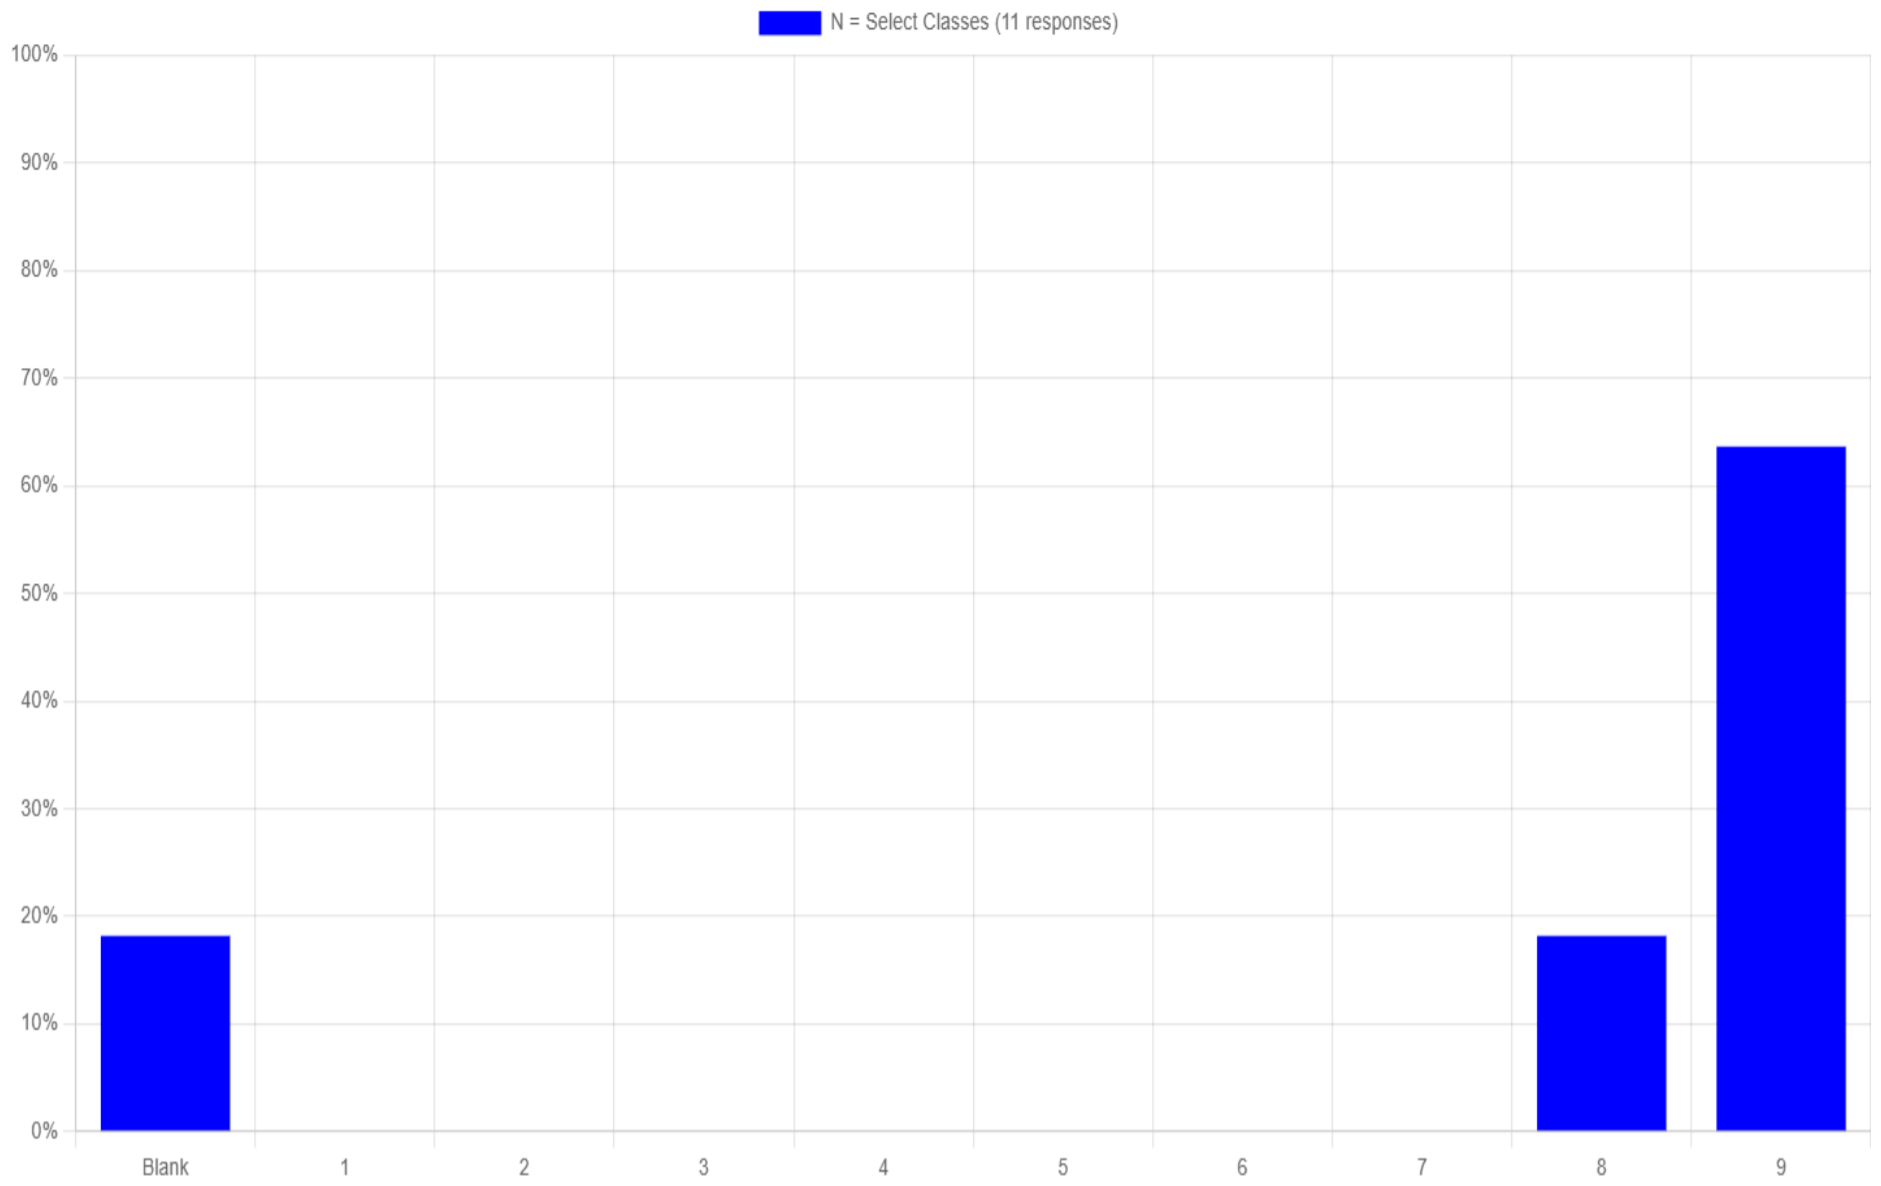

Overall Course Rating.

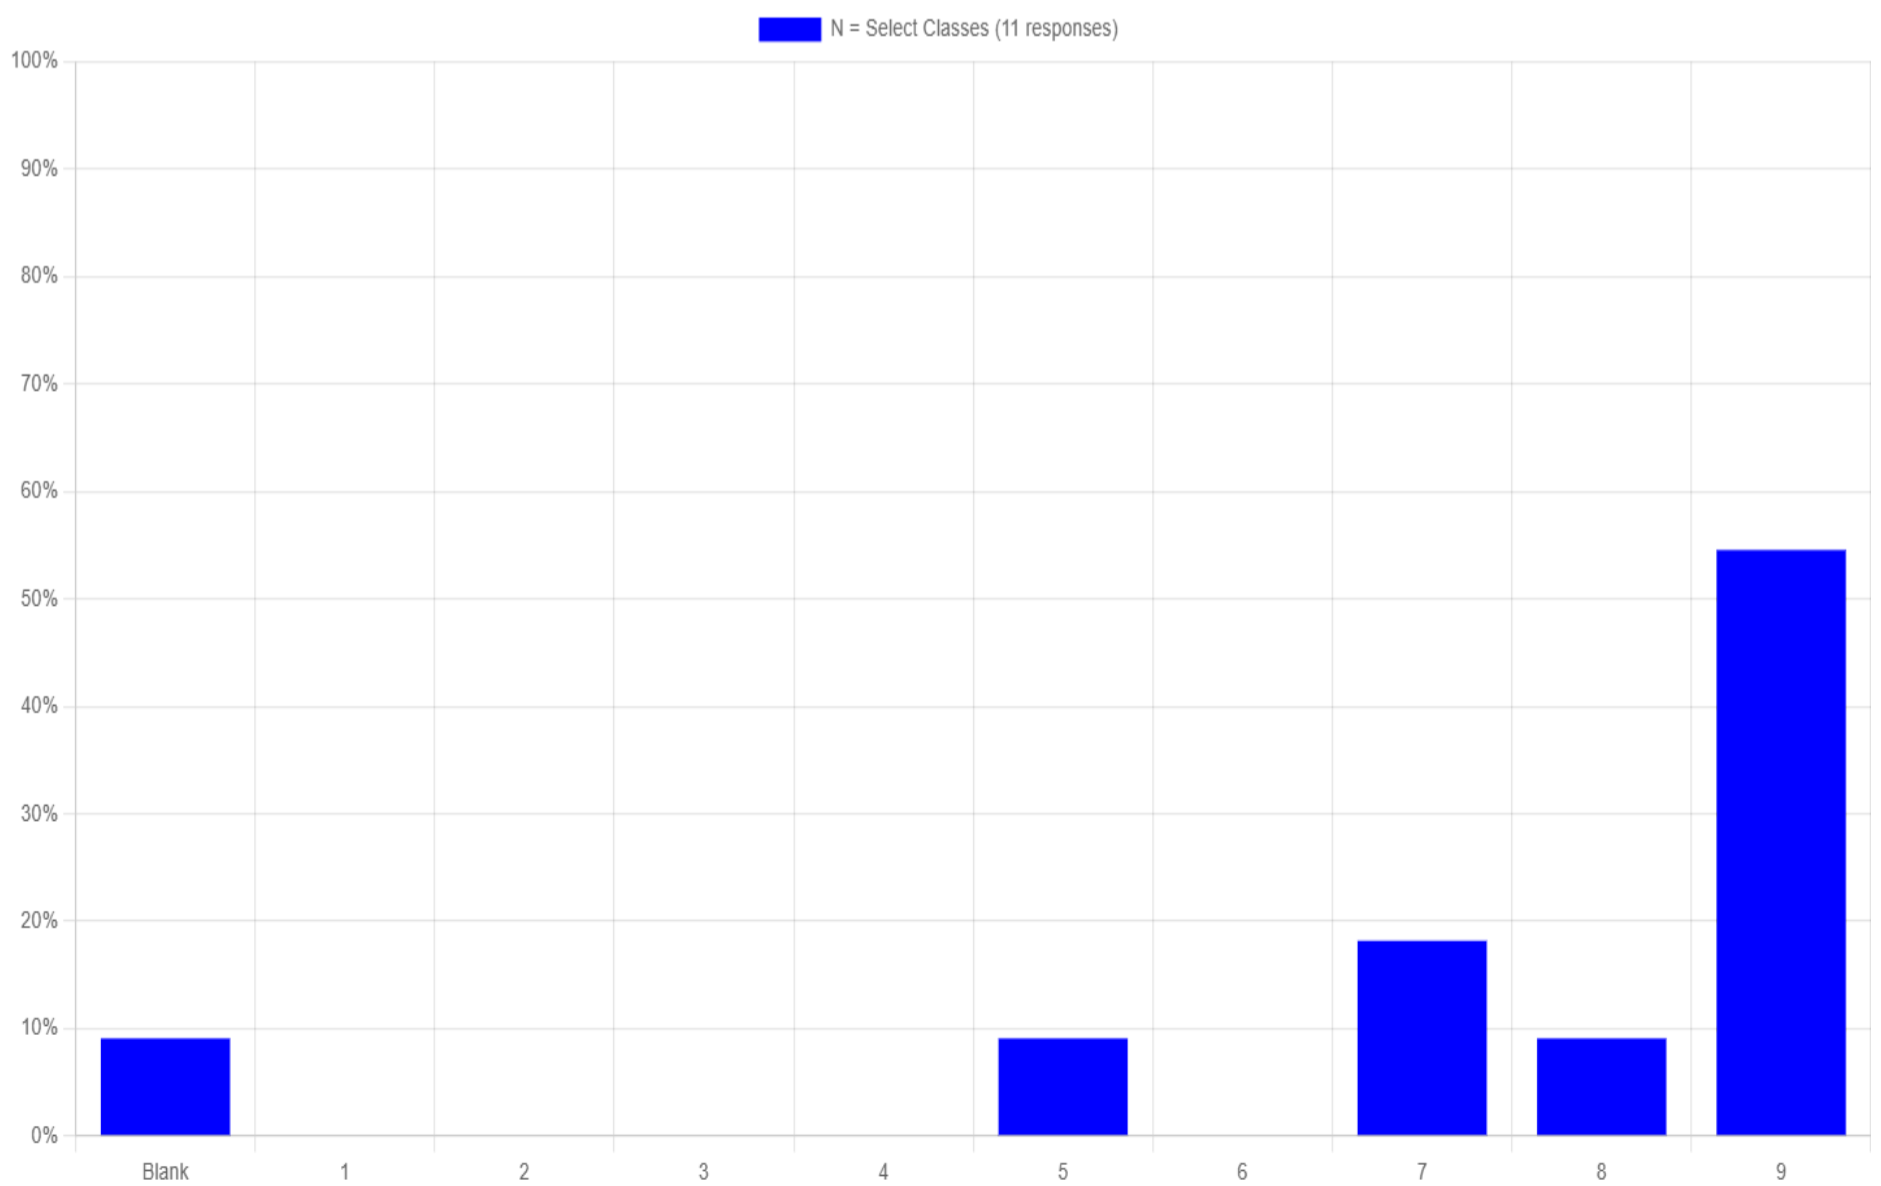

Suggestions for improvement of this course.

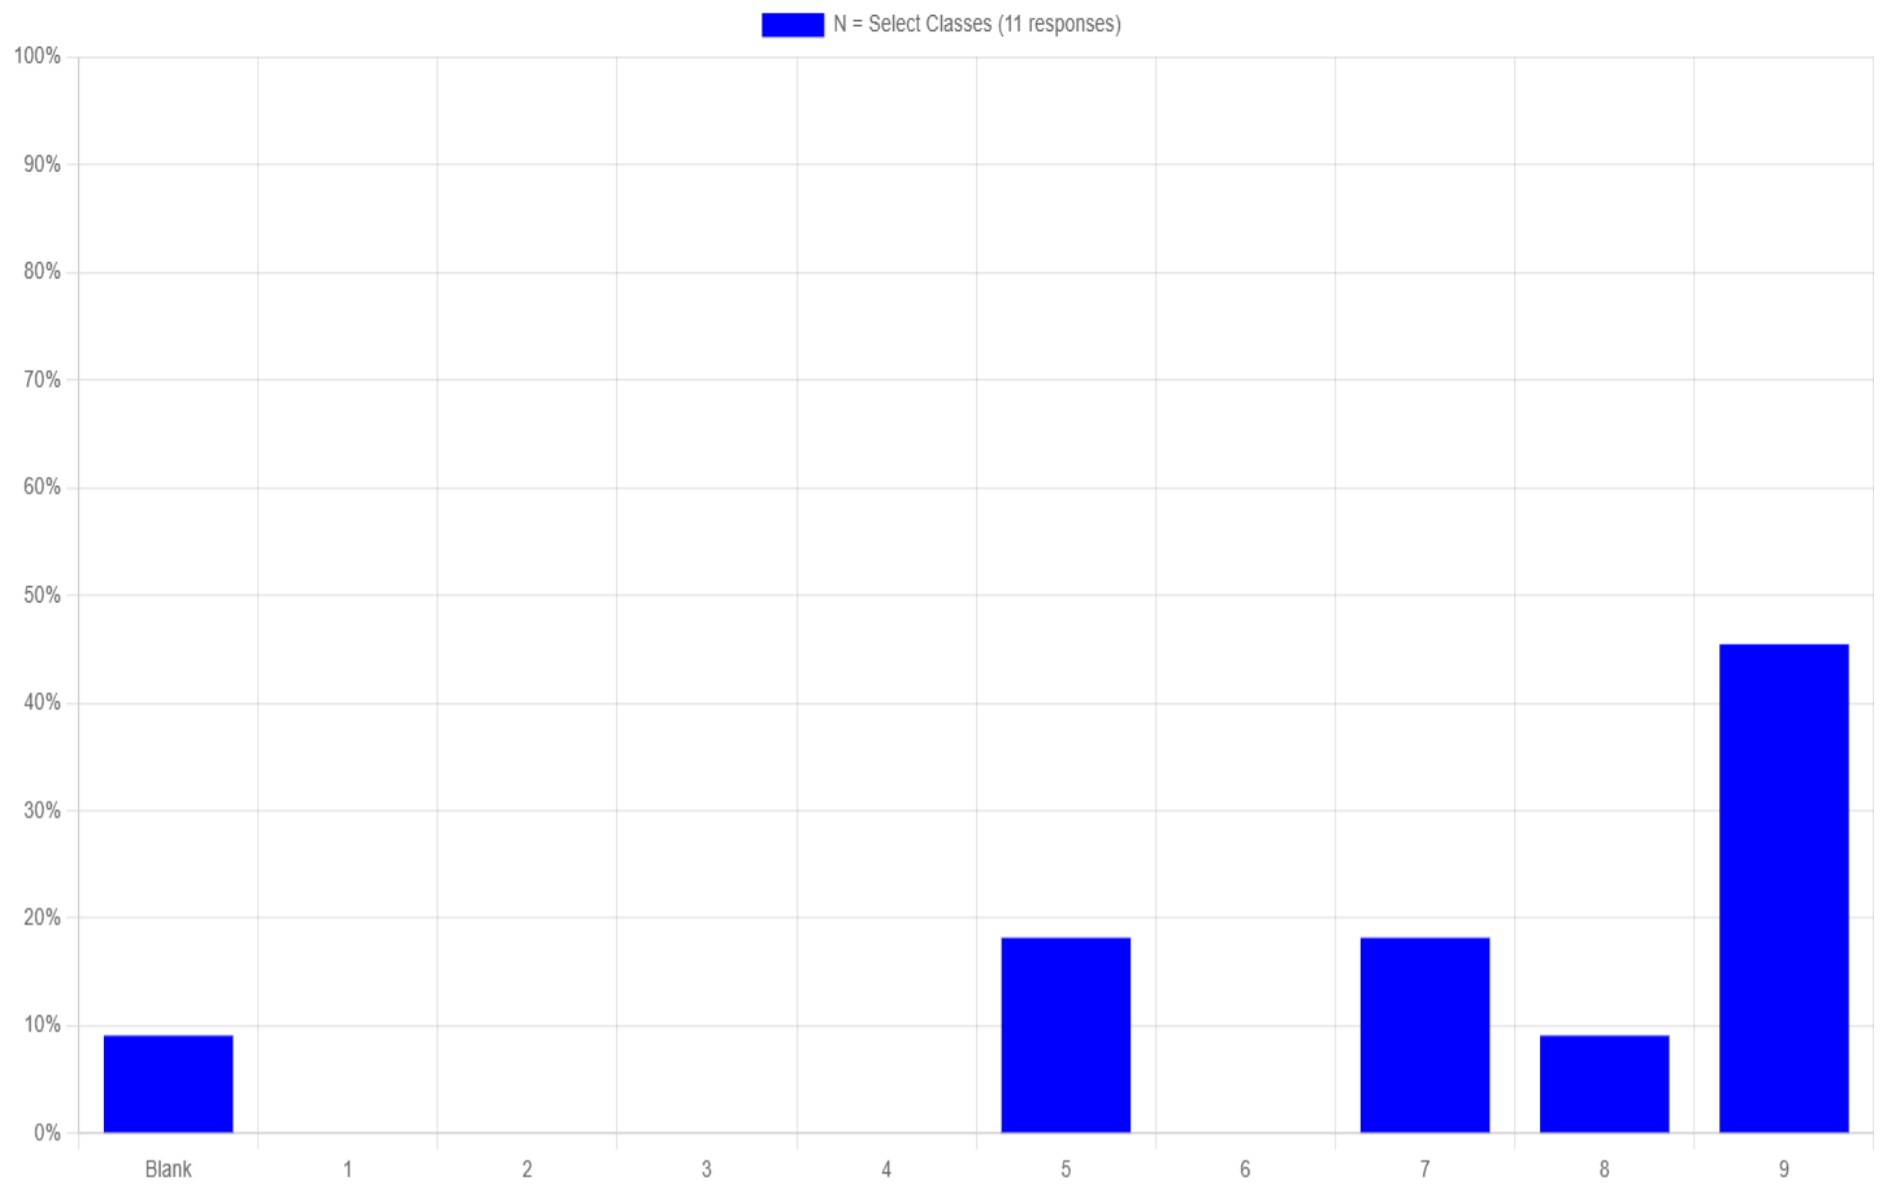

The simulation scenarios were realistic.

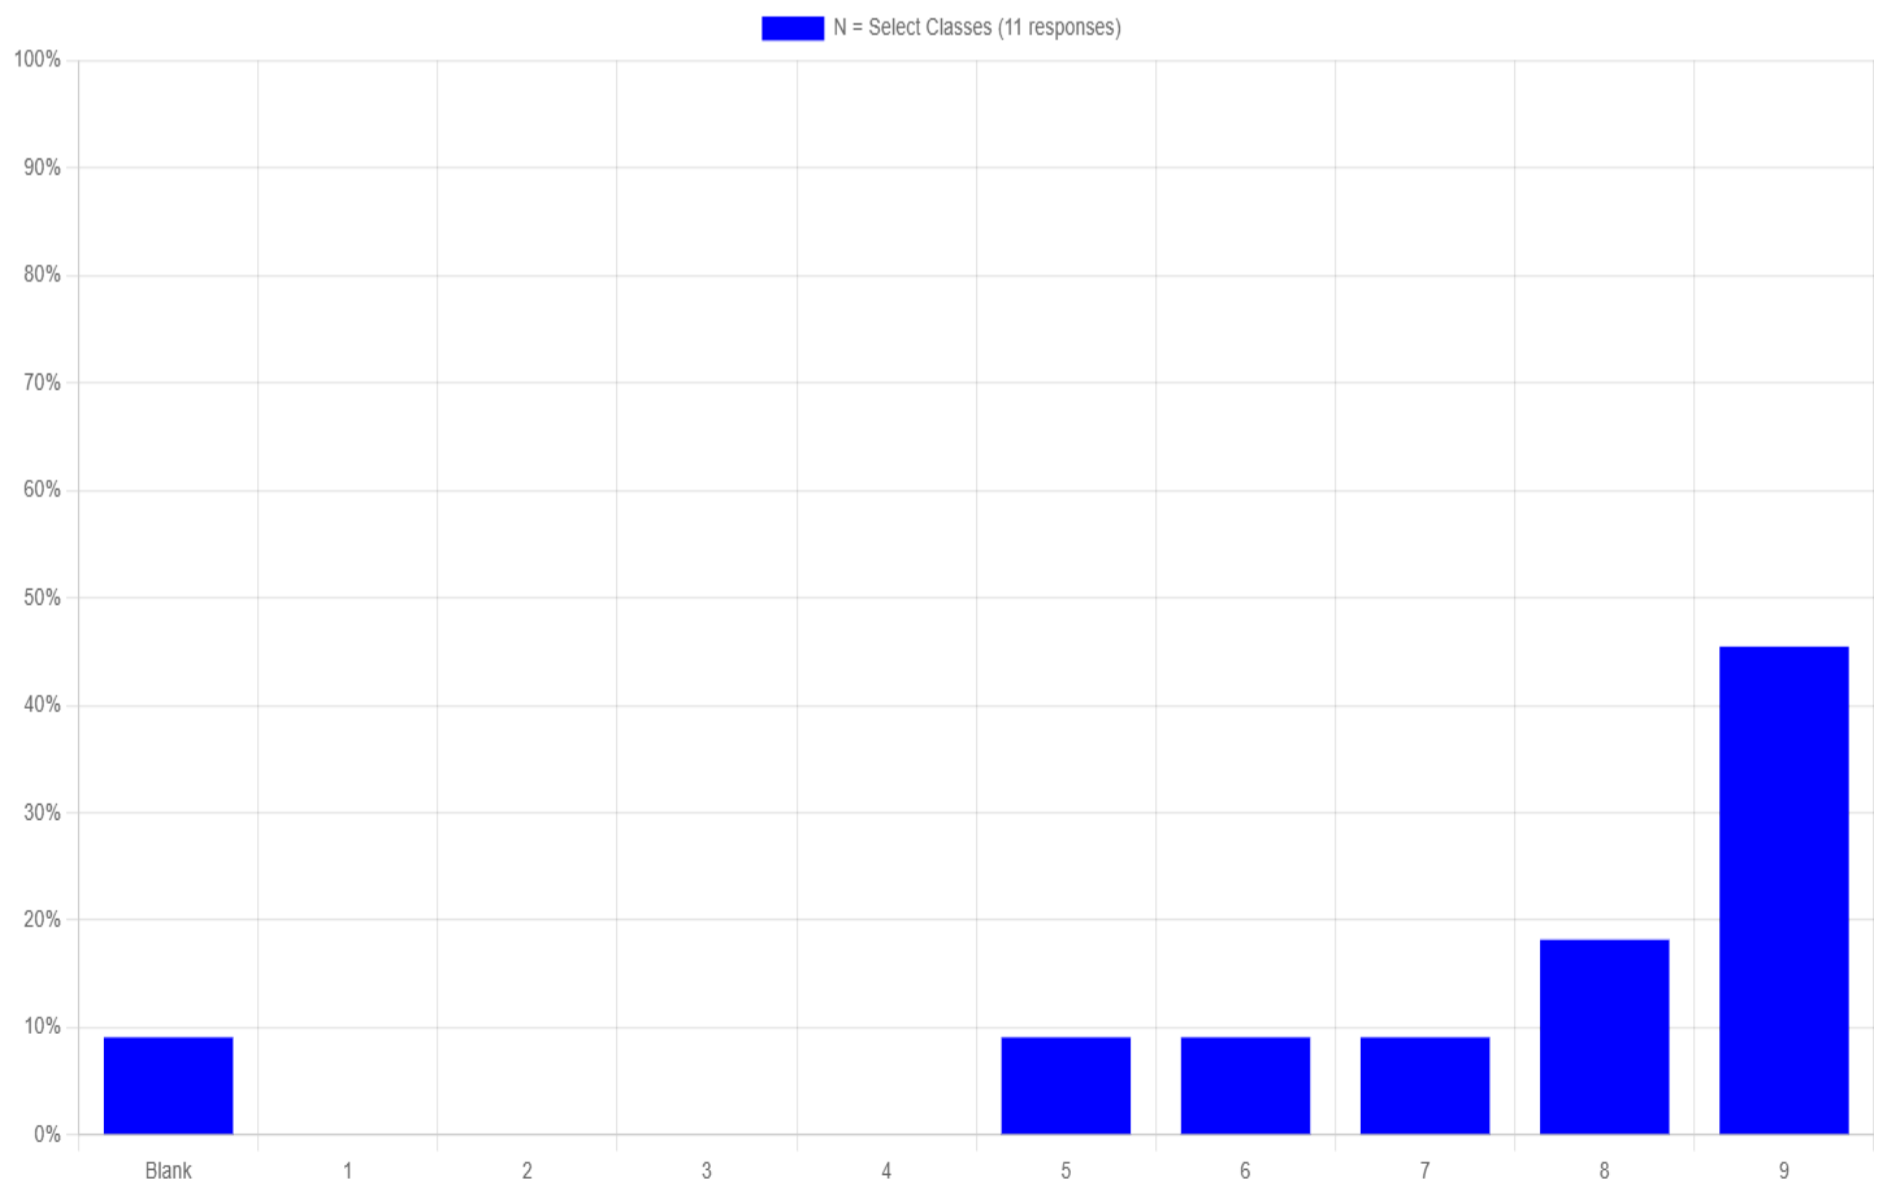

The simulation scenarios were challenging.

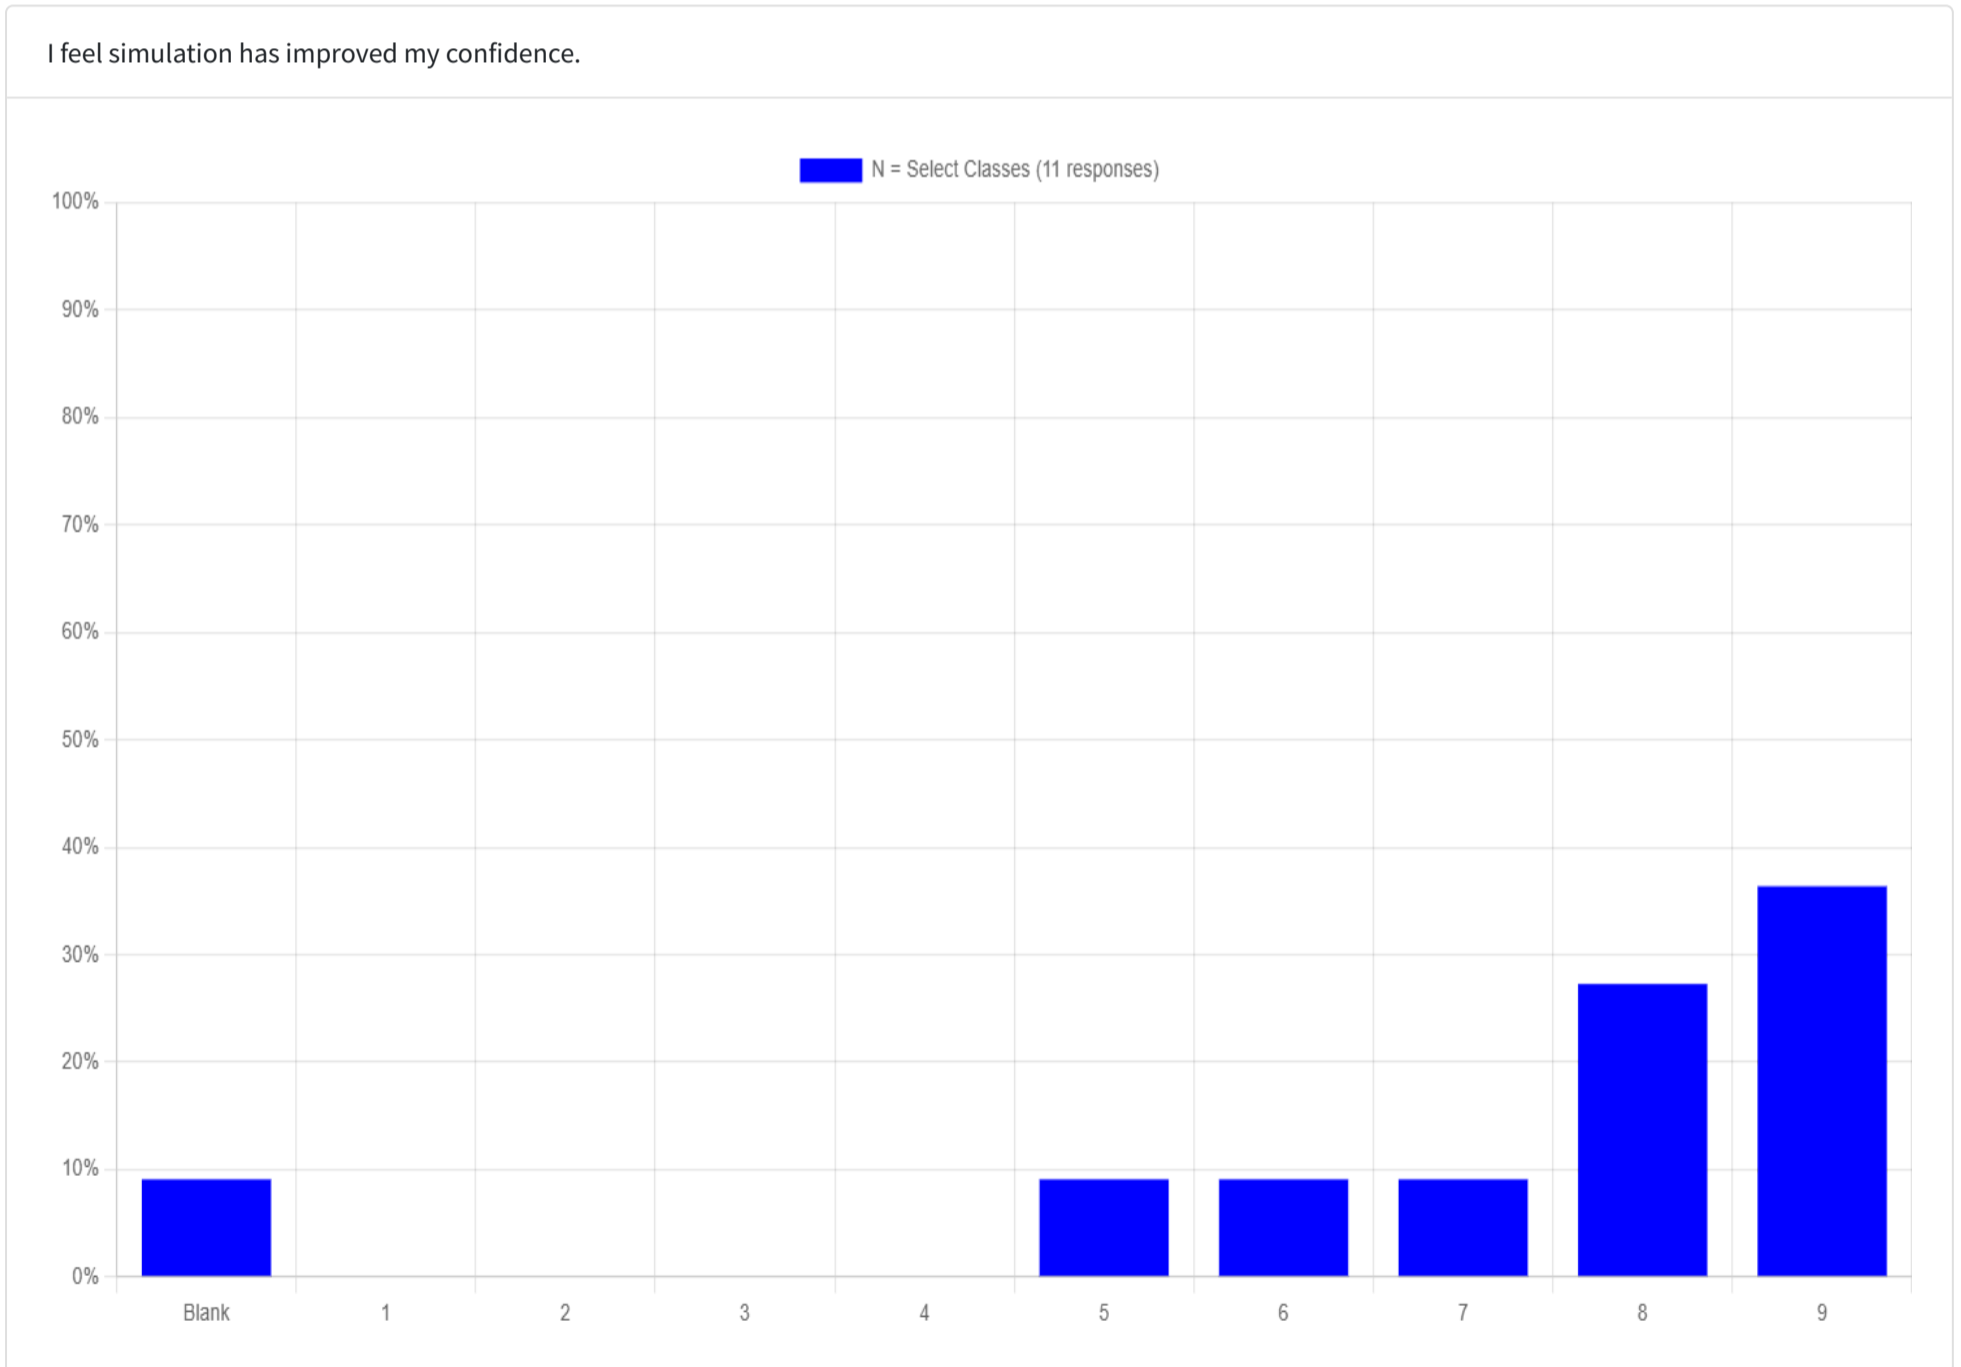

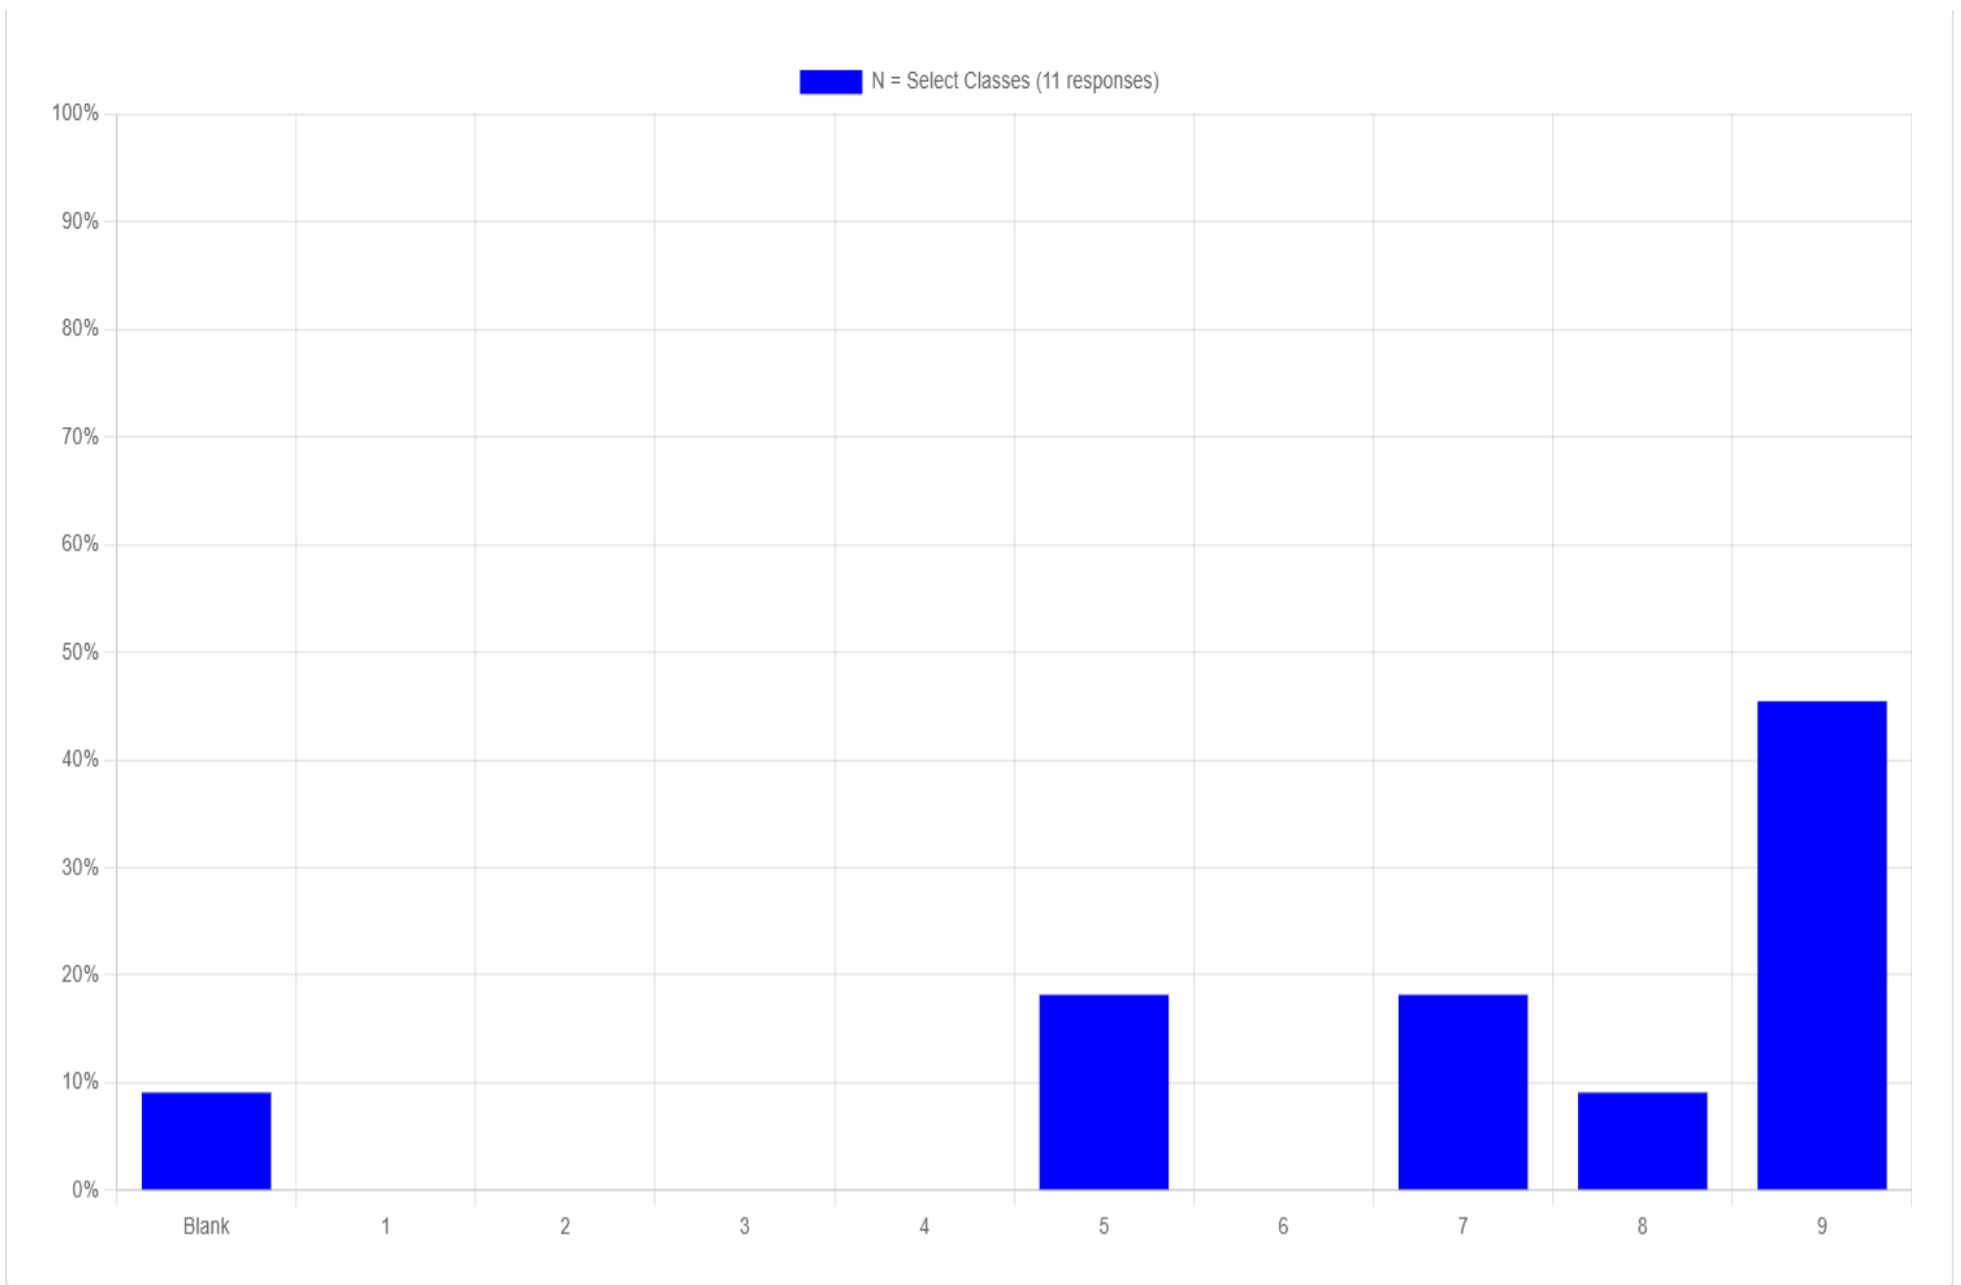

I feel simulation has improved my technical skills.

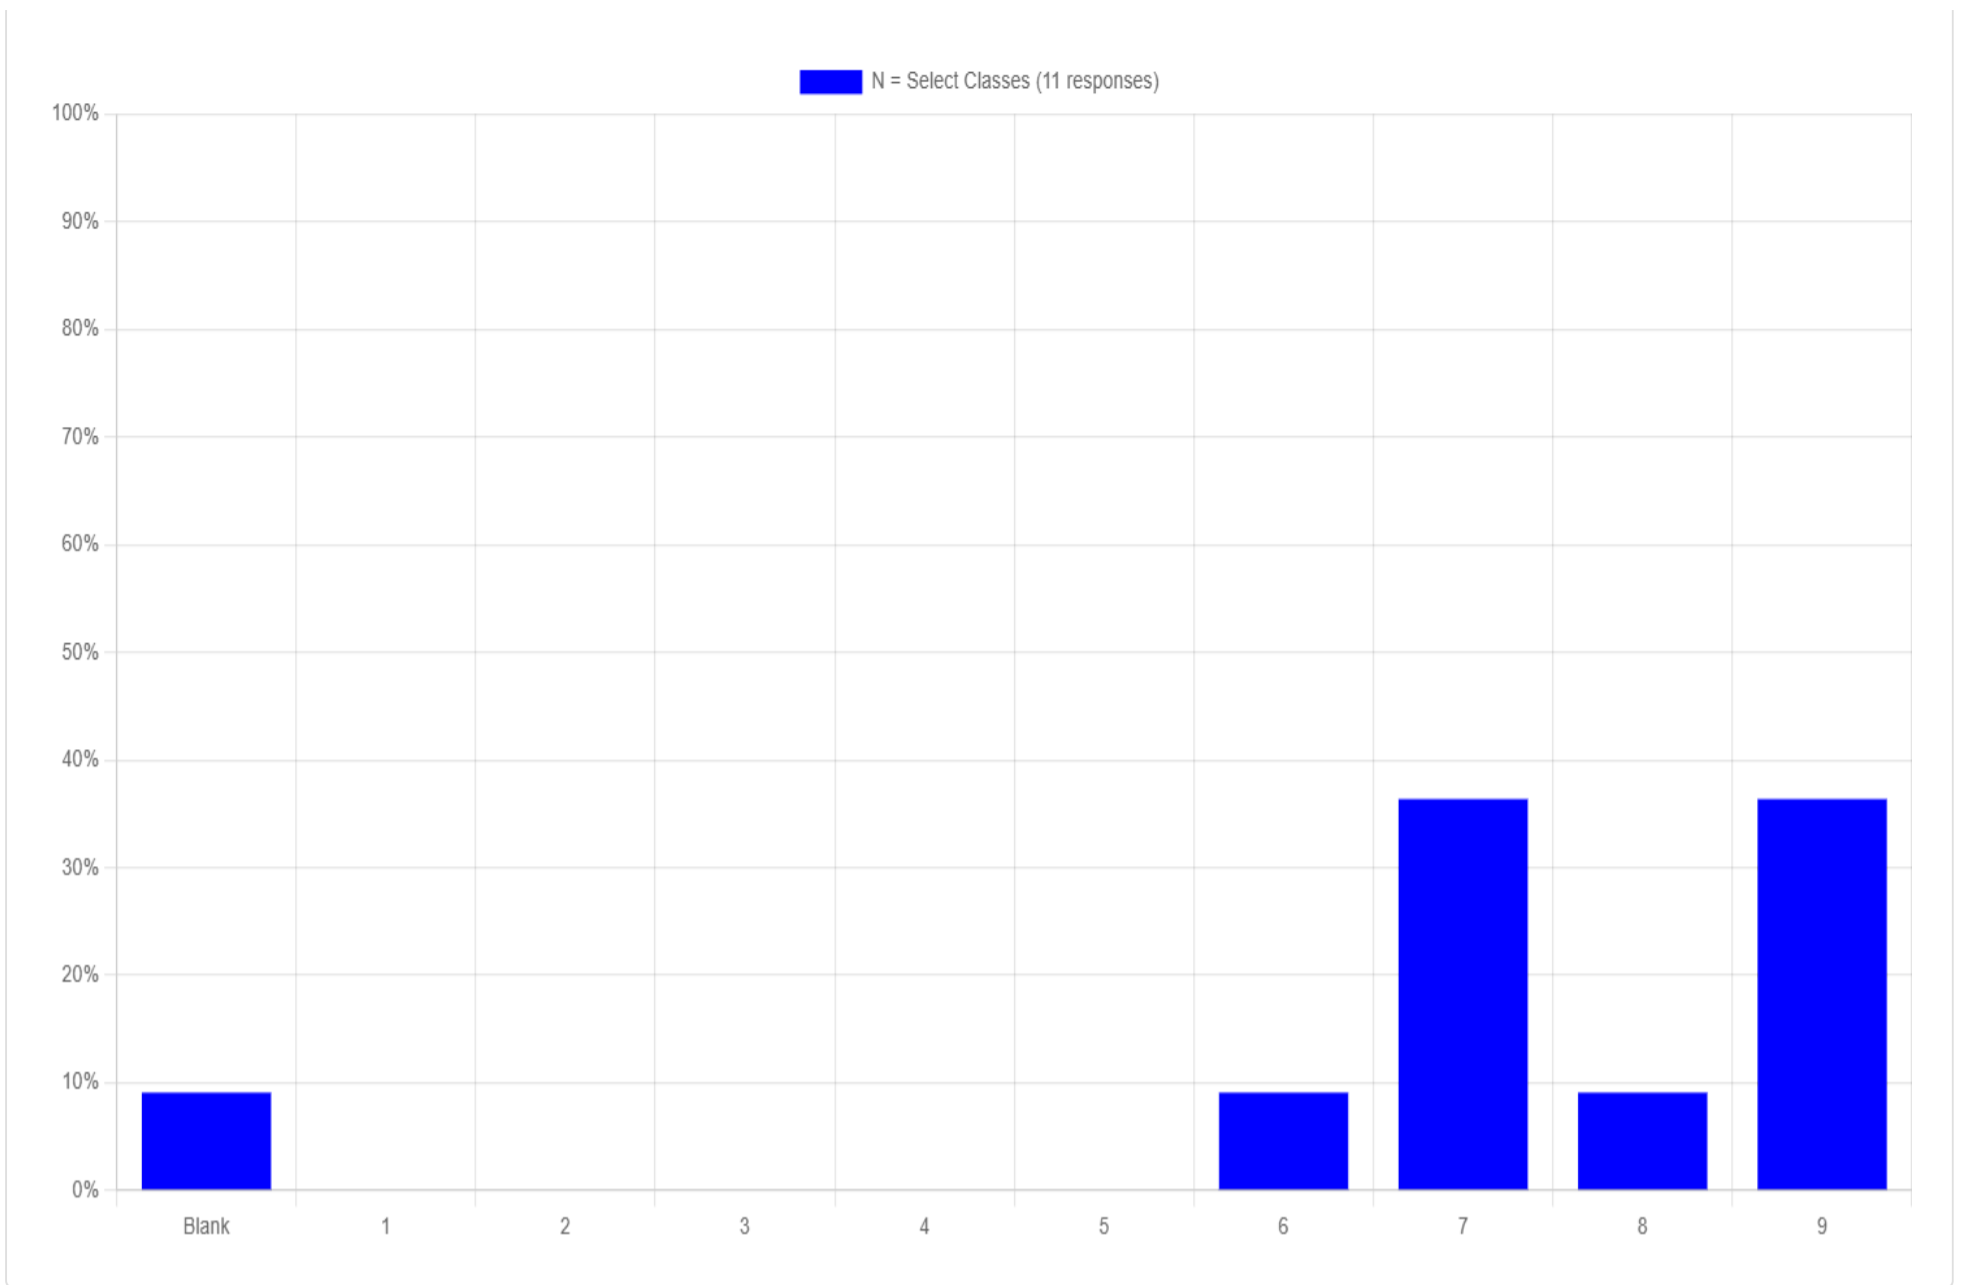

I feel simulation has improved my medical knowledge.

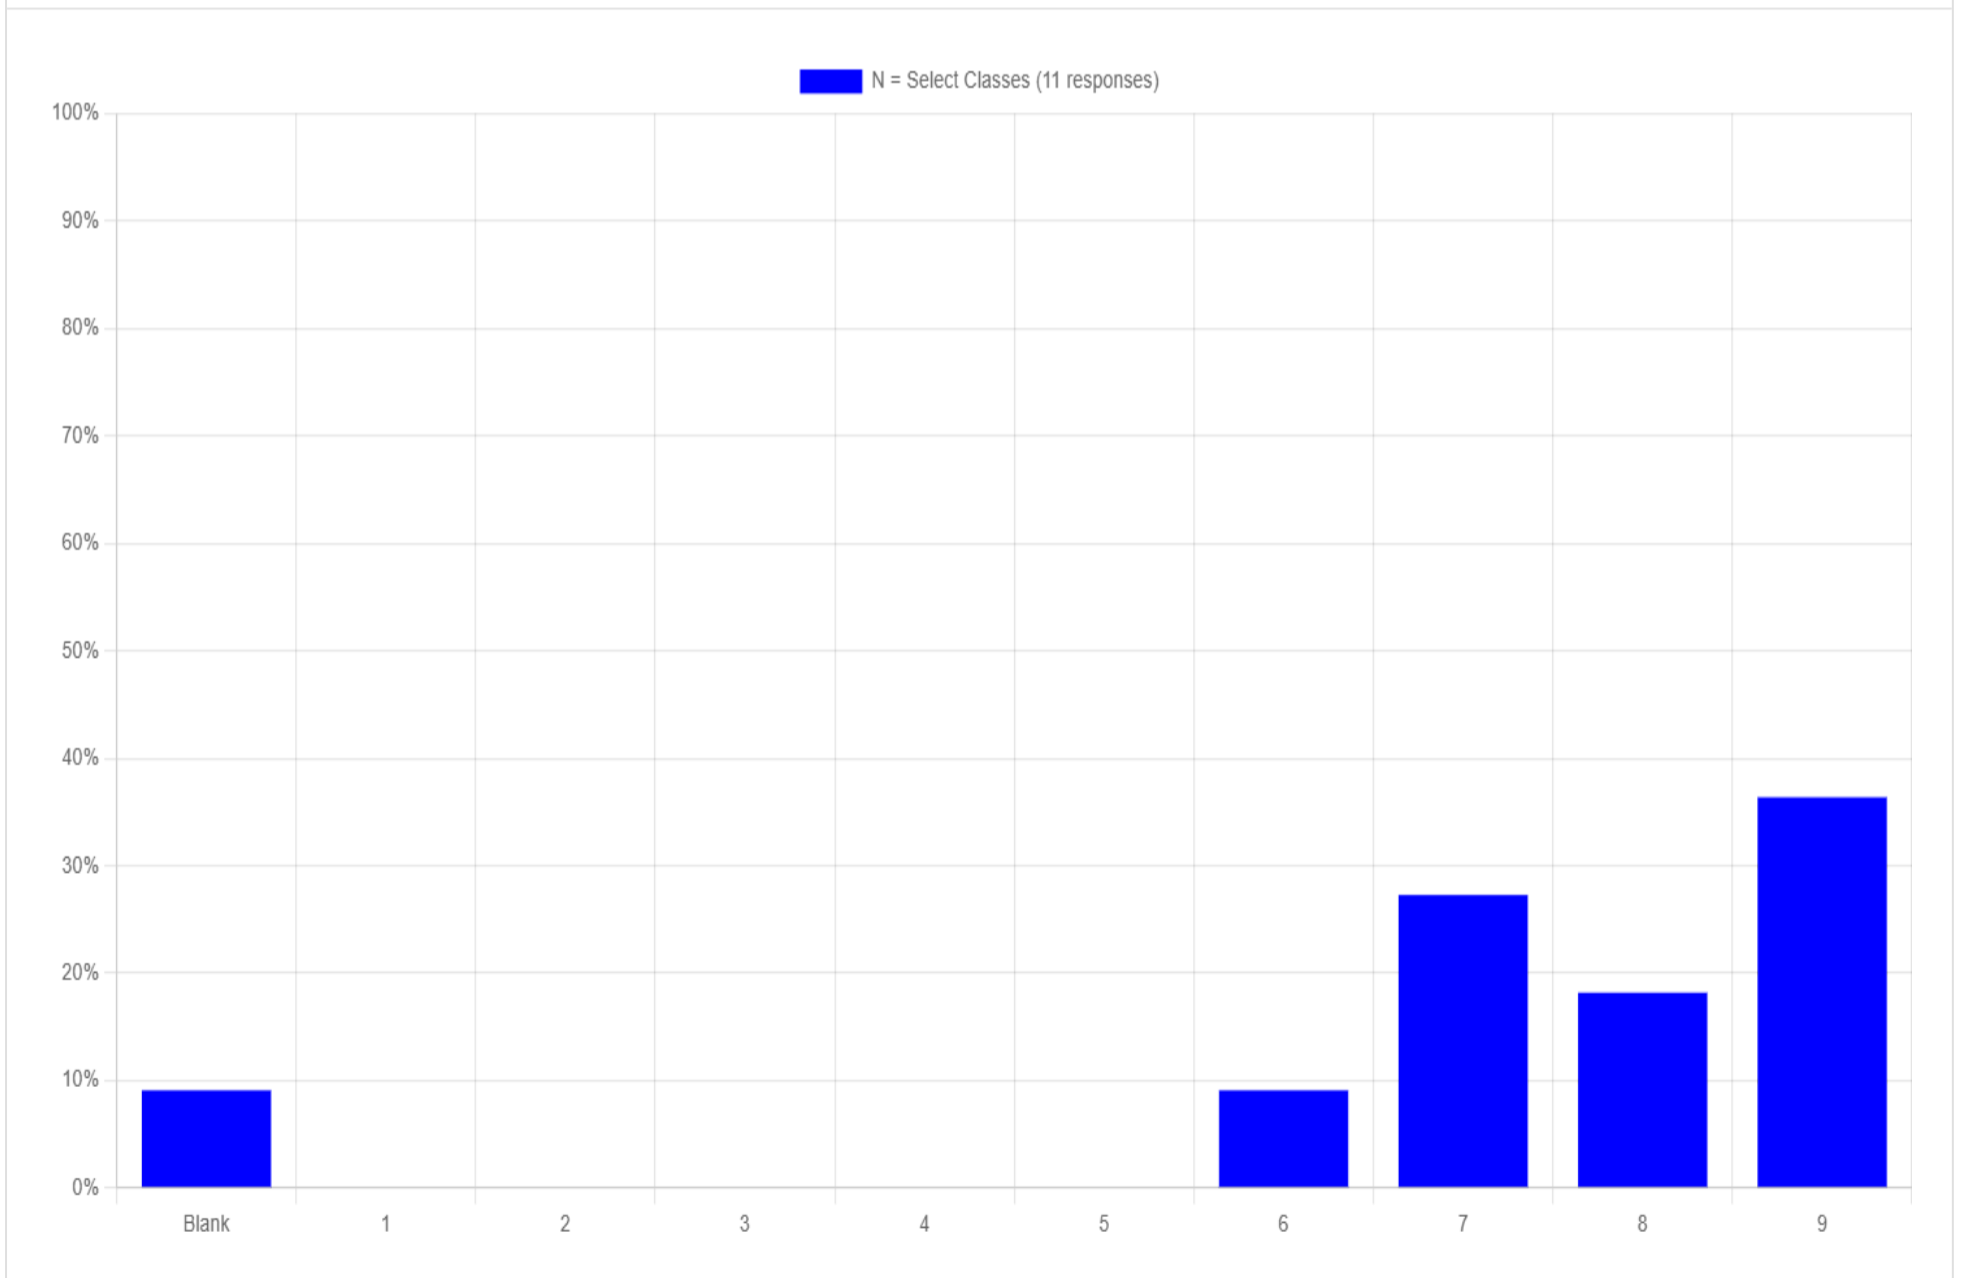

I feel simulation has improved my judgment skills.

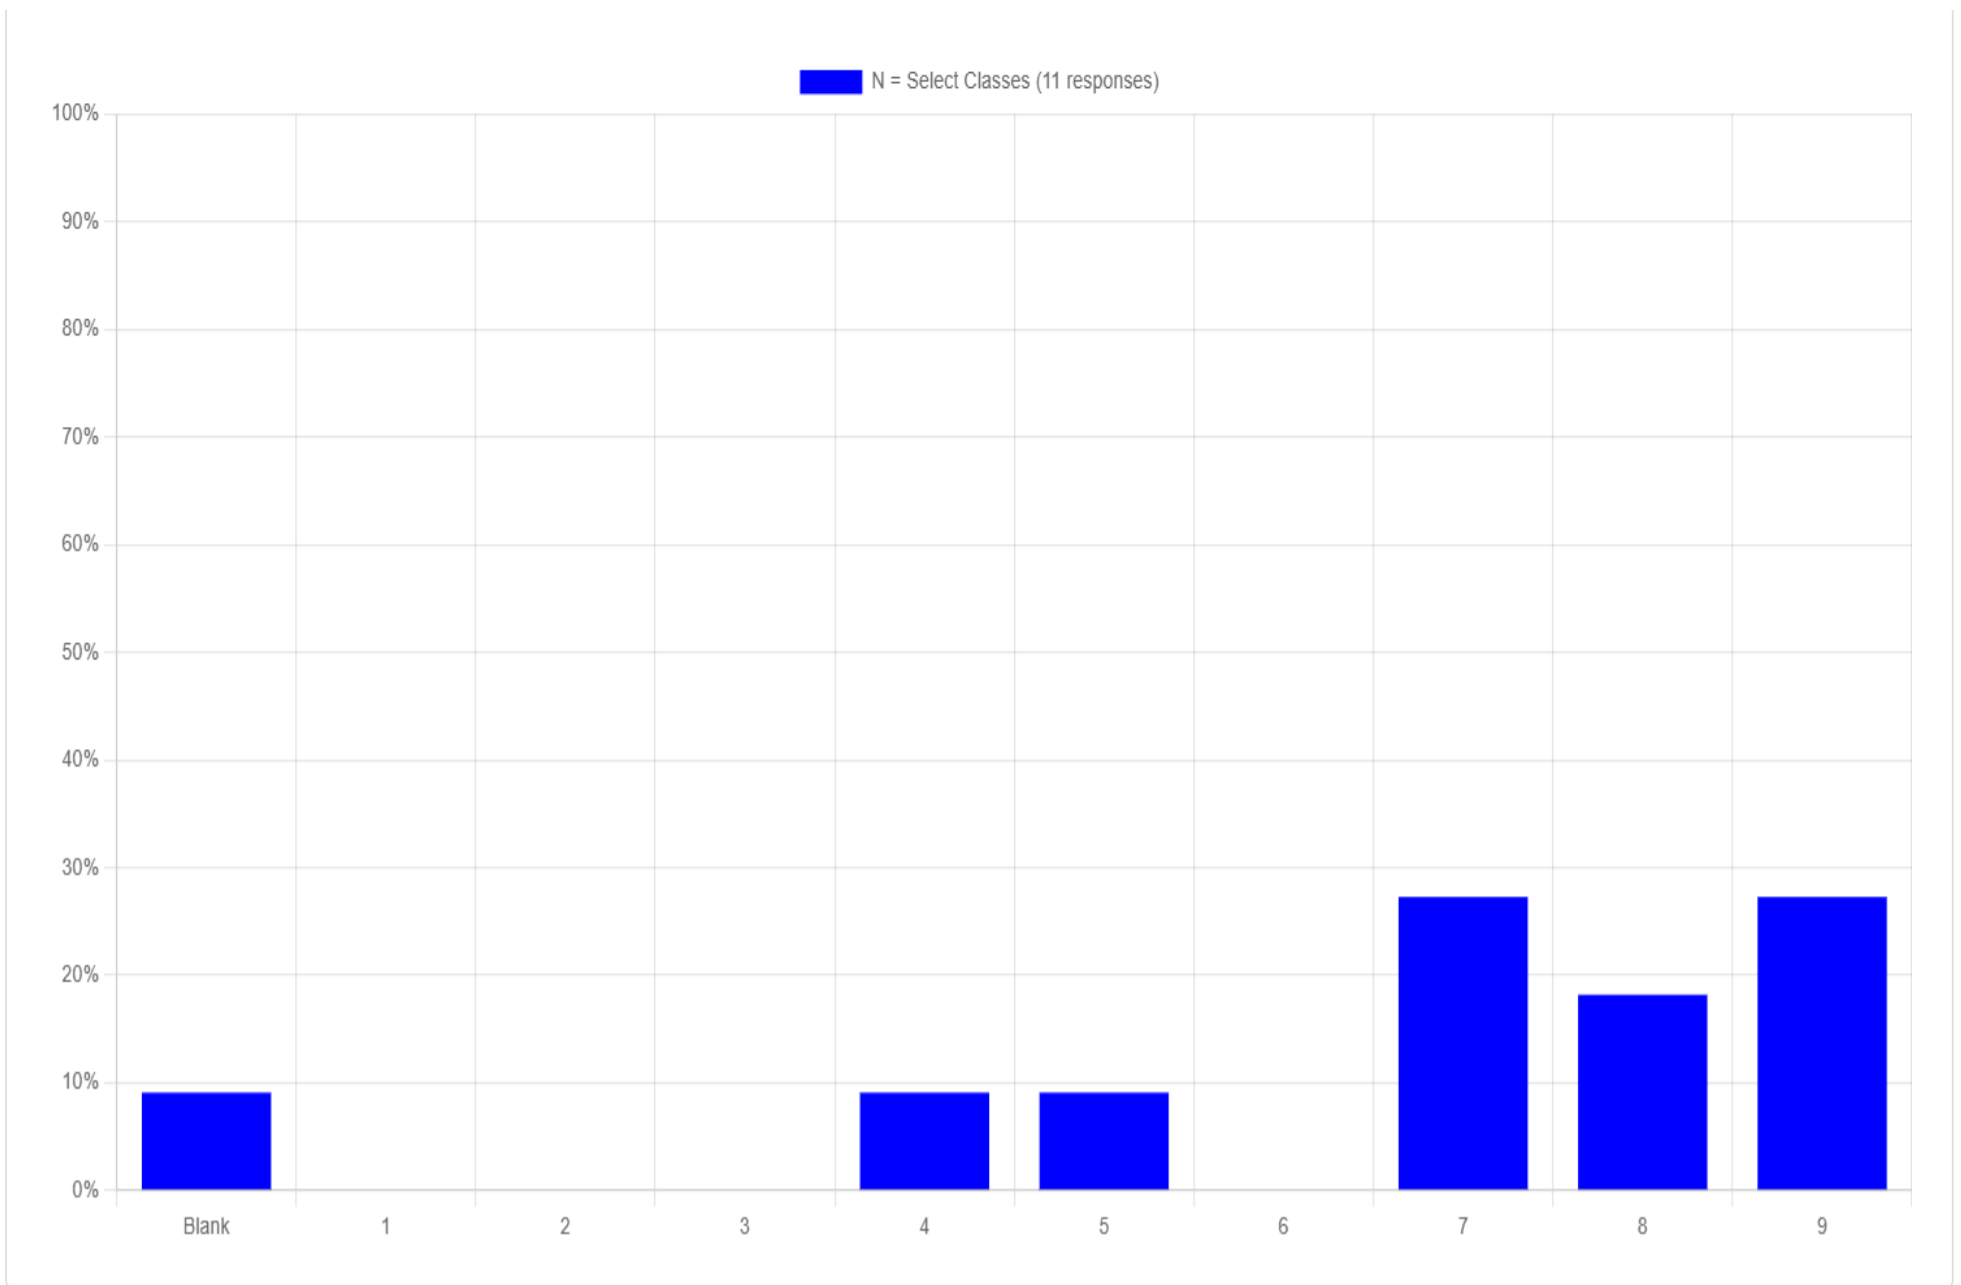

I feel confident in successfully responding to a contrast reaction event in an outpatient setting.

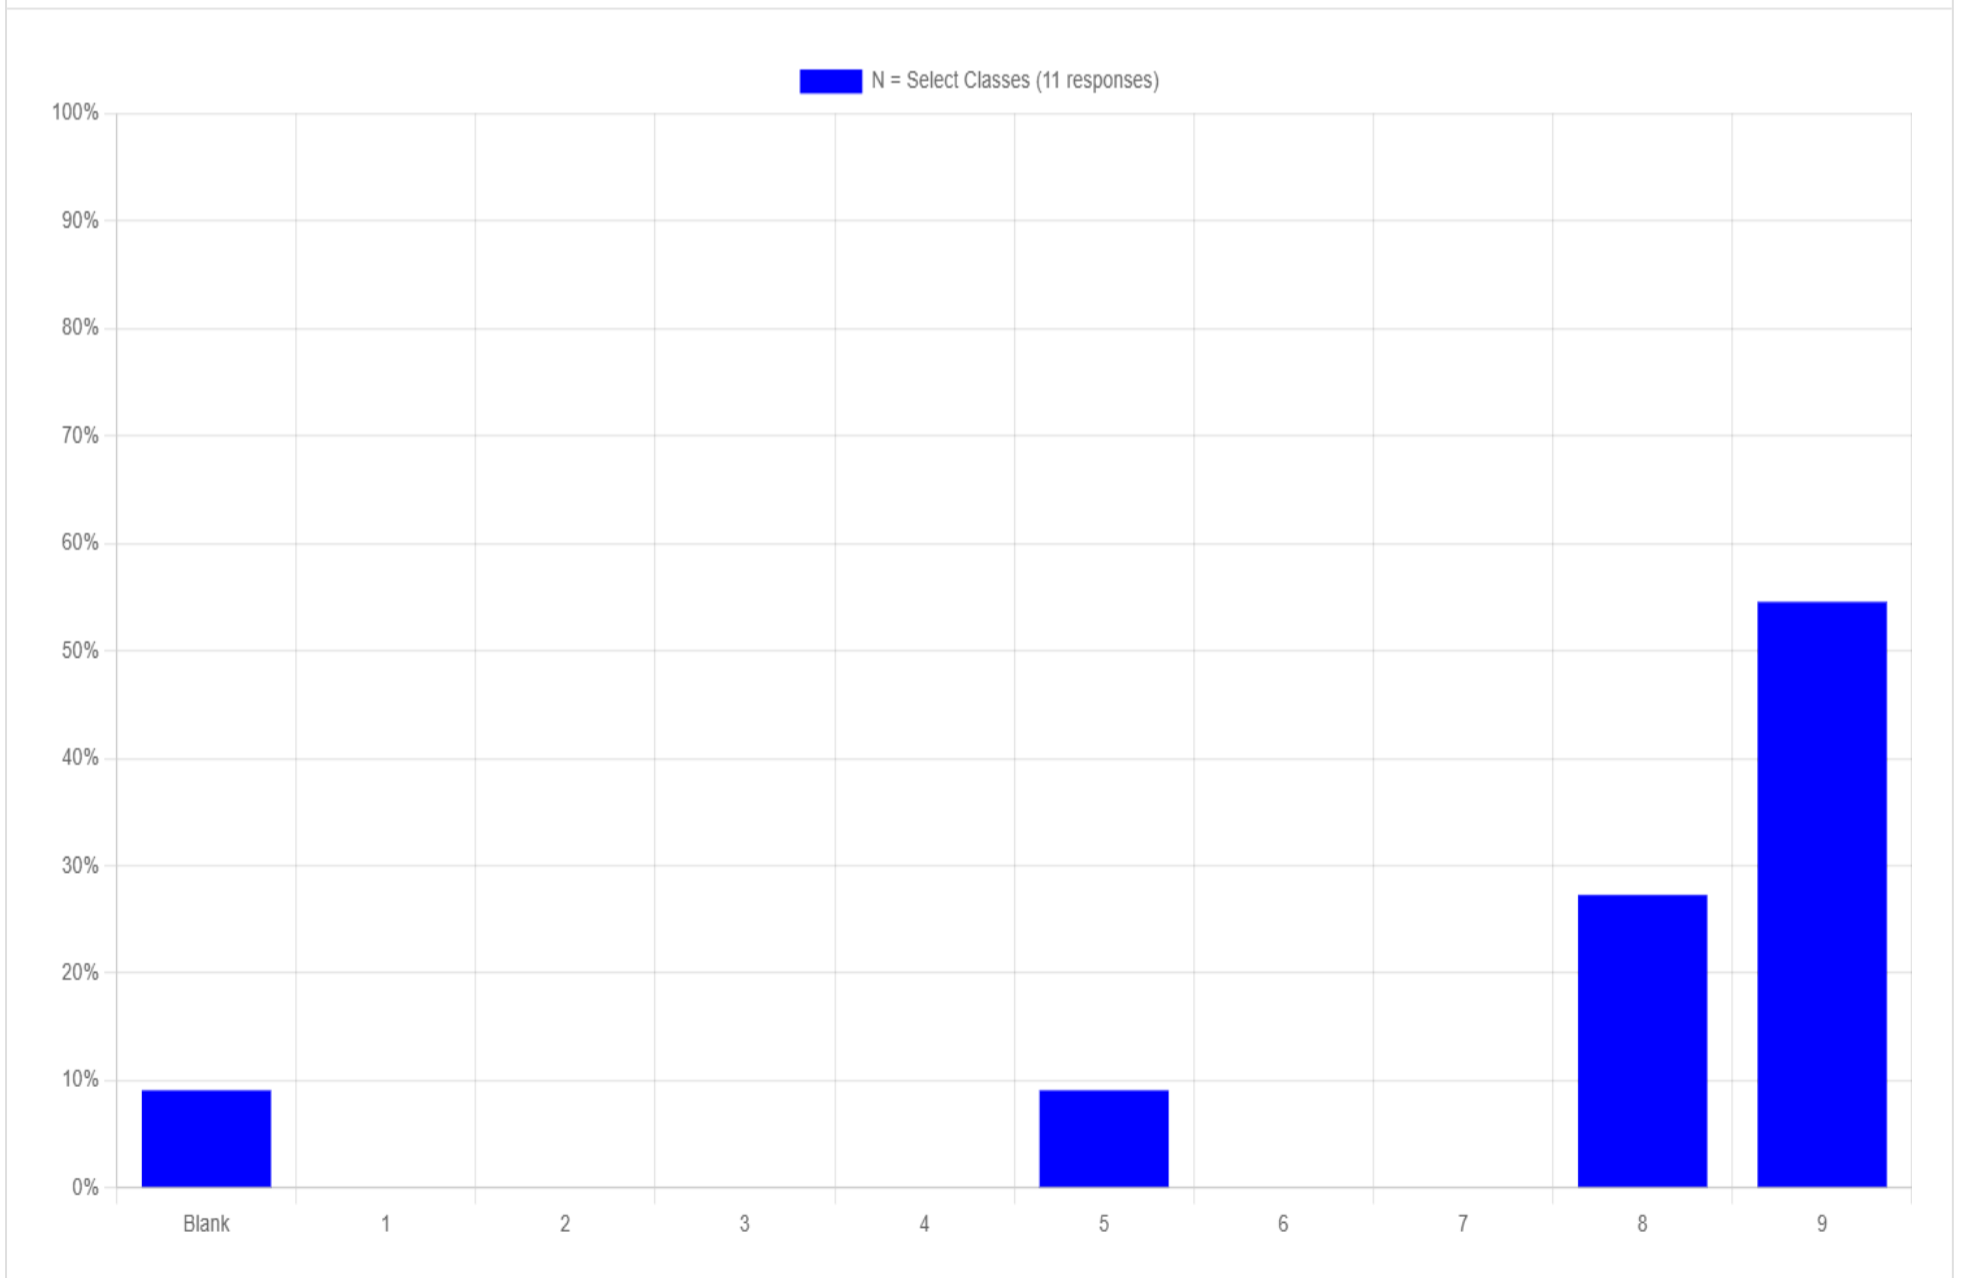

I feel confident in successfully responding to a contrast reaction event in an inpatient setting.

How competent are you at identifying and managing contrast reactions after taking this course?

I found simulation based training to be more helpful than an online presentation alone.

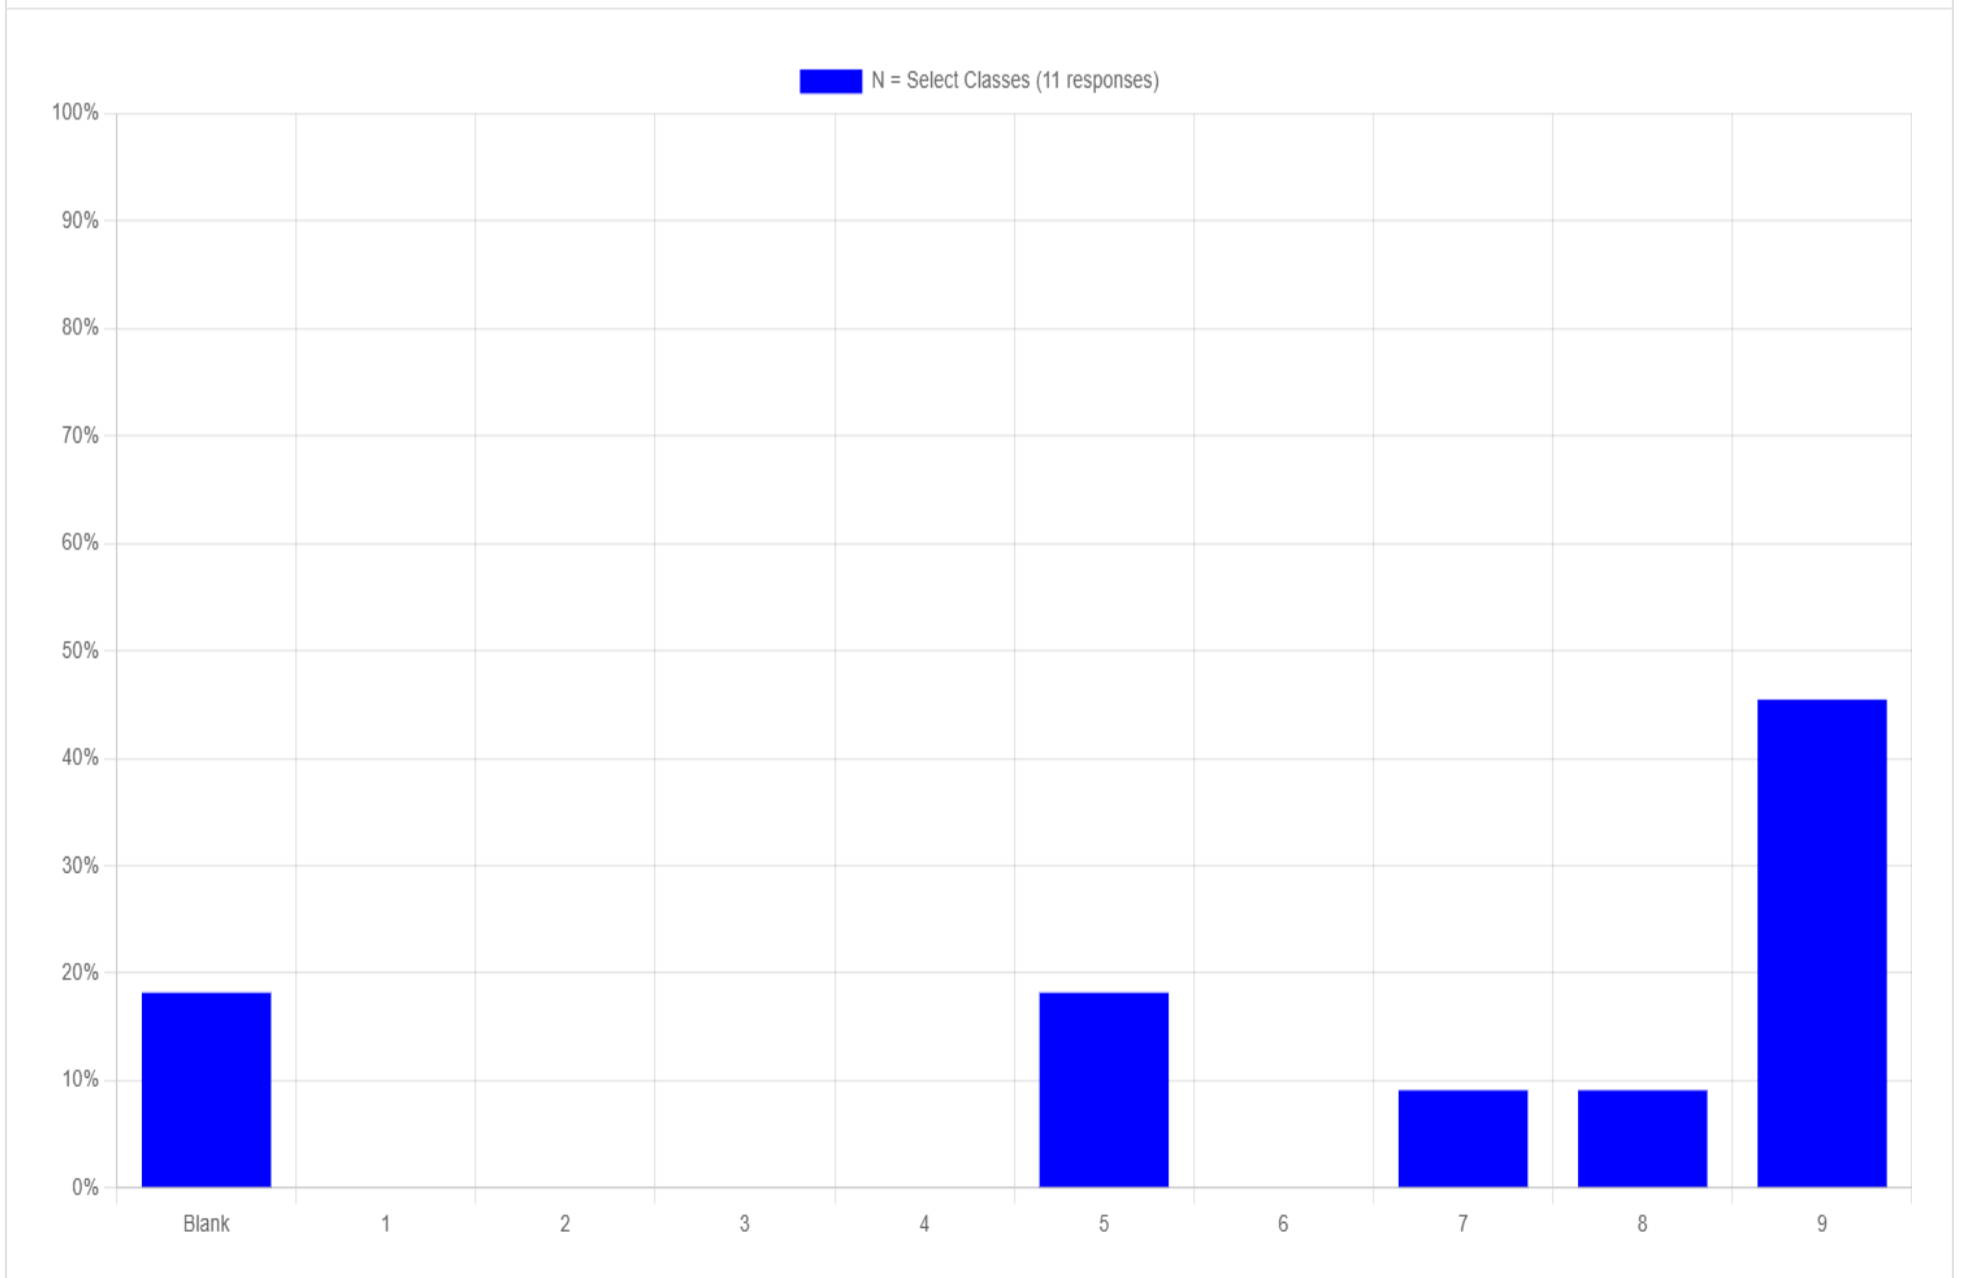

Additional Comments.

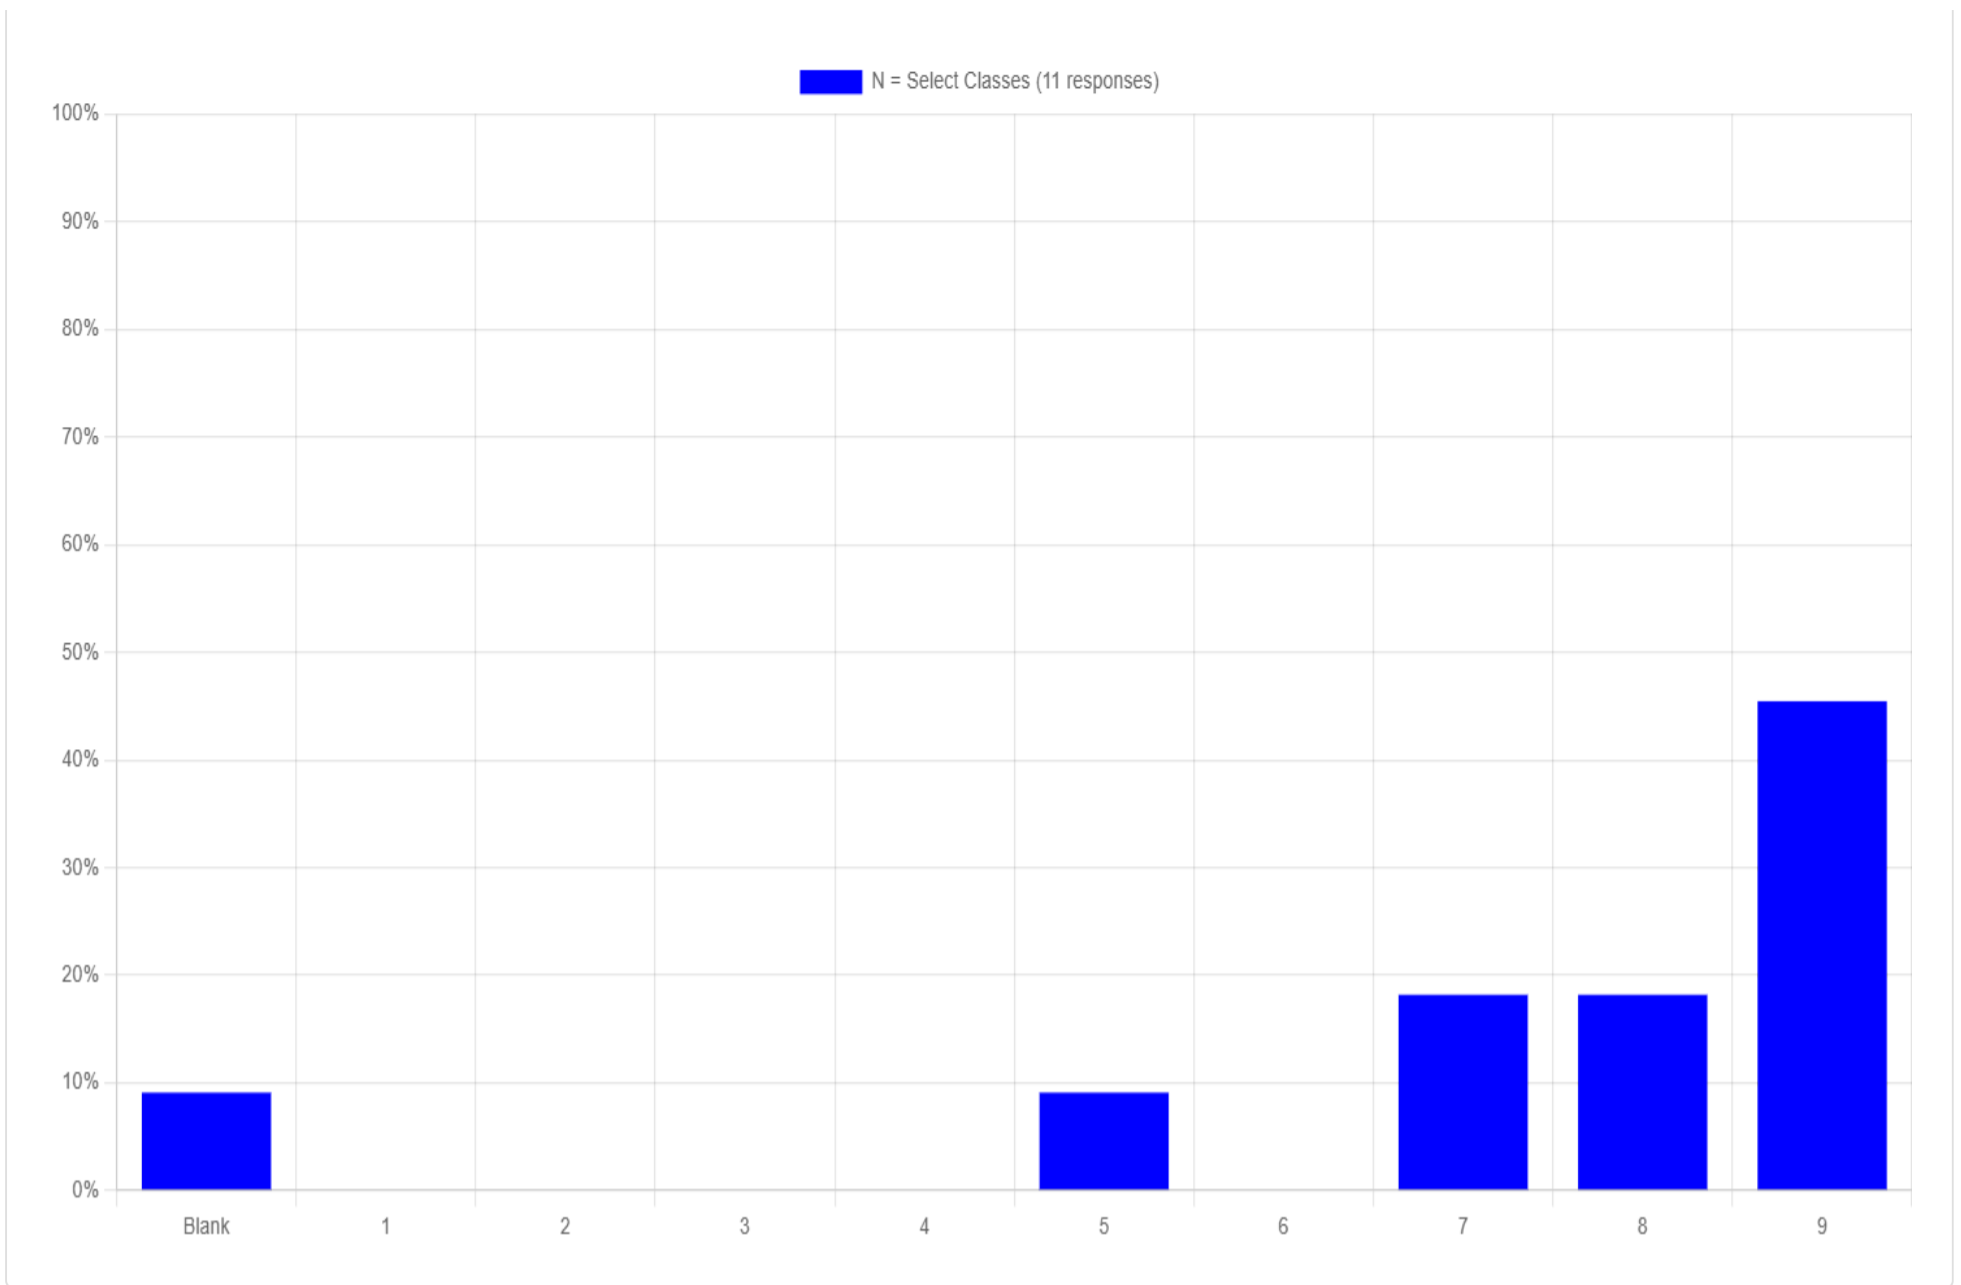

The online course curriculum was helpful.

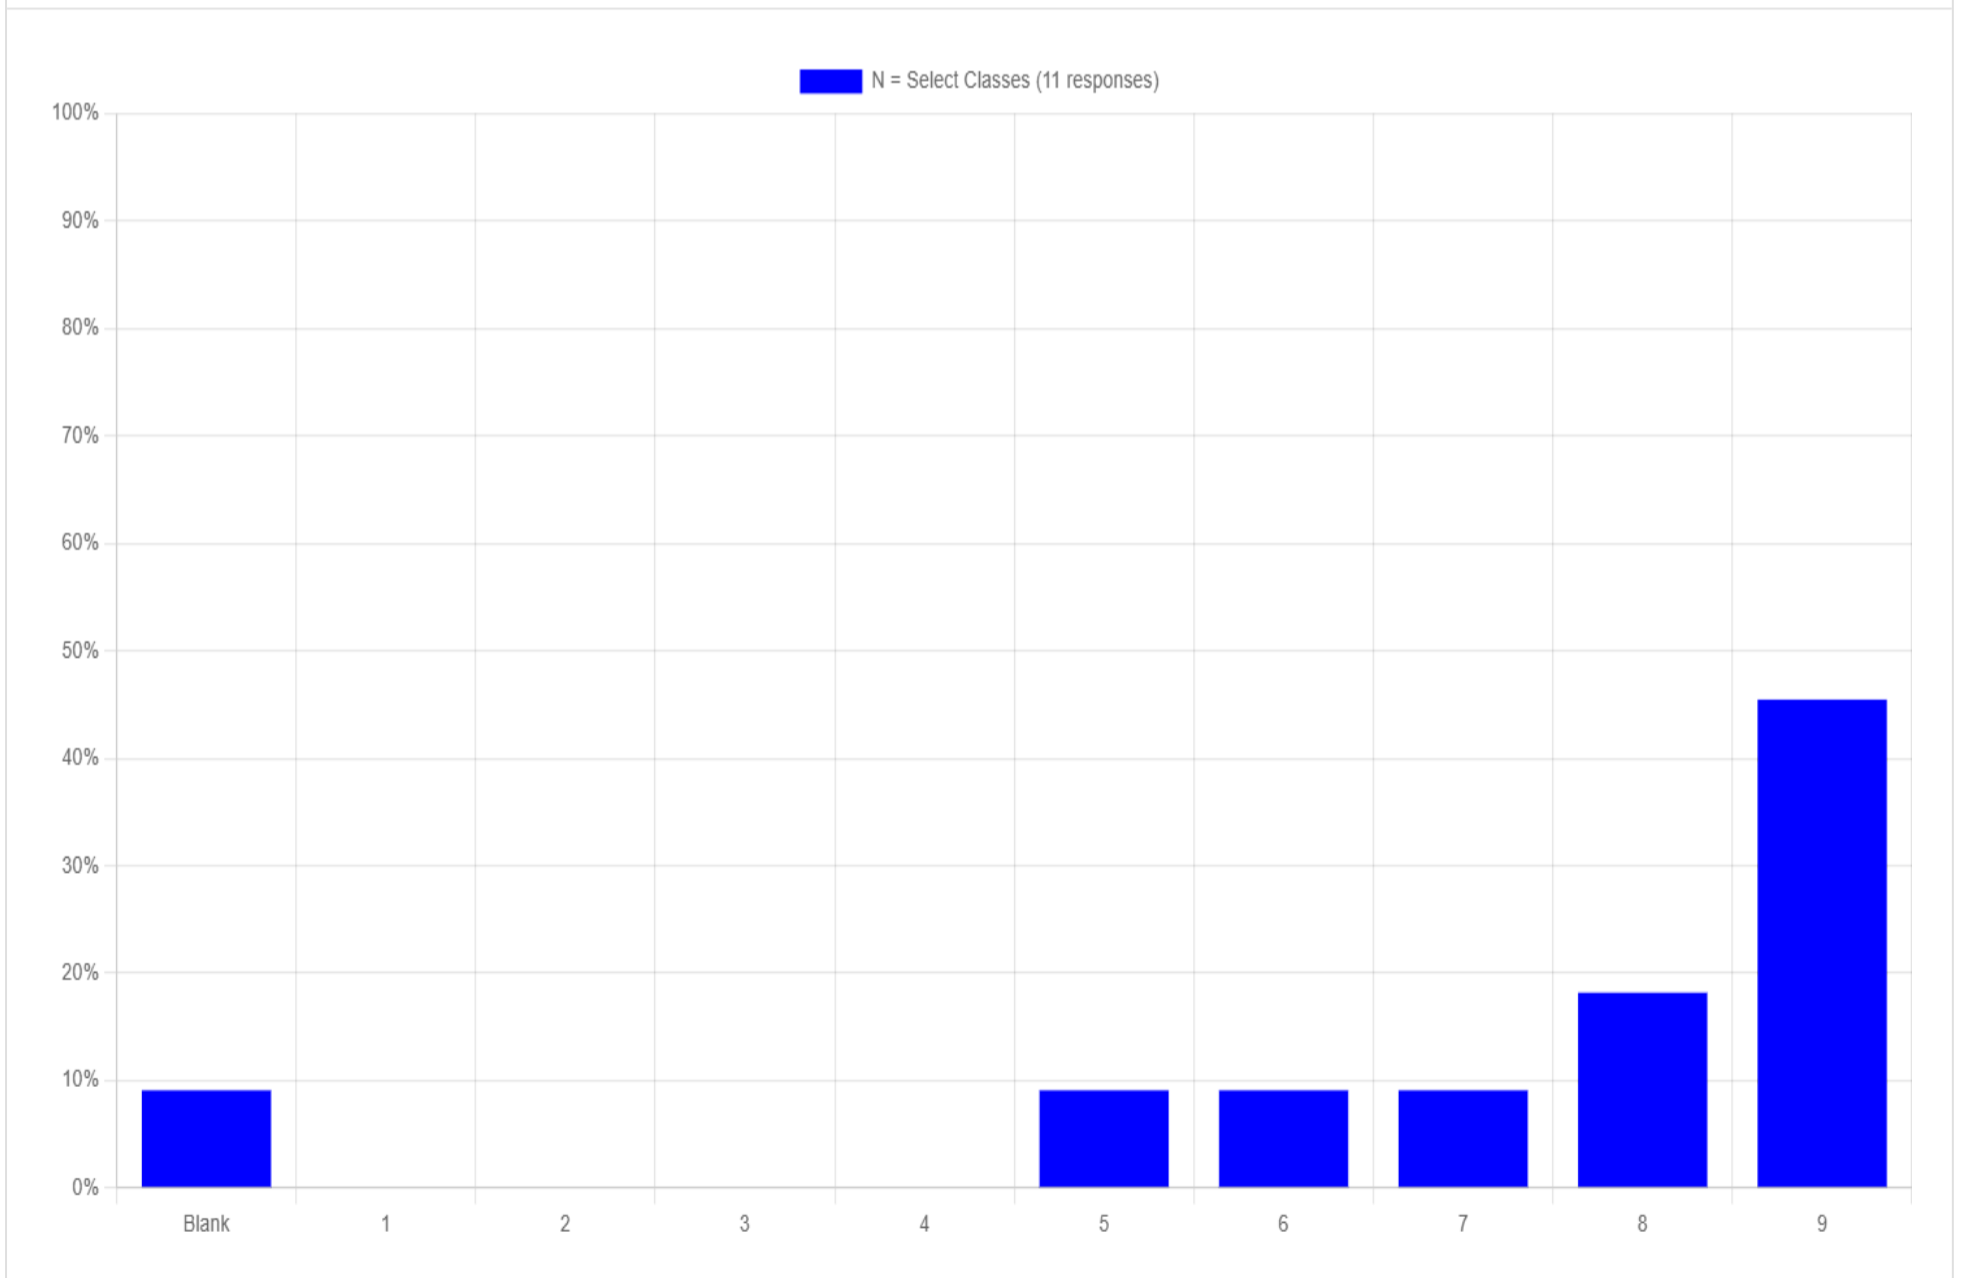

The online course curriculum was well-organized.

The online course curriculum was informative.

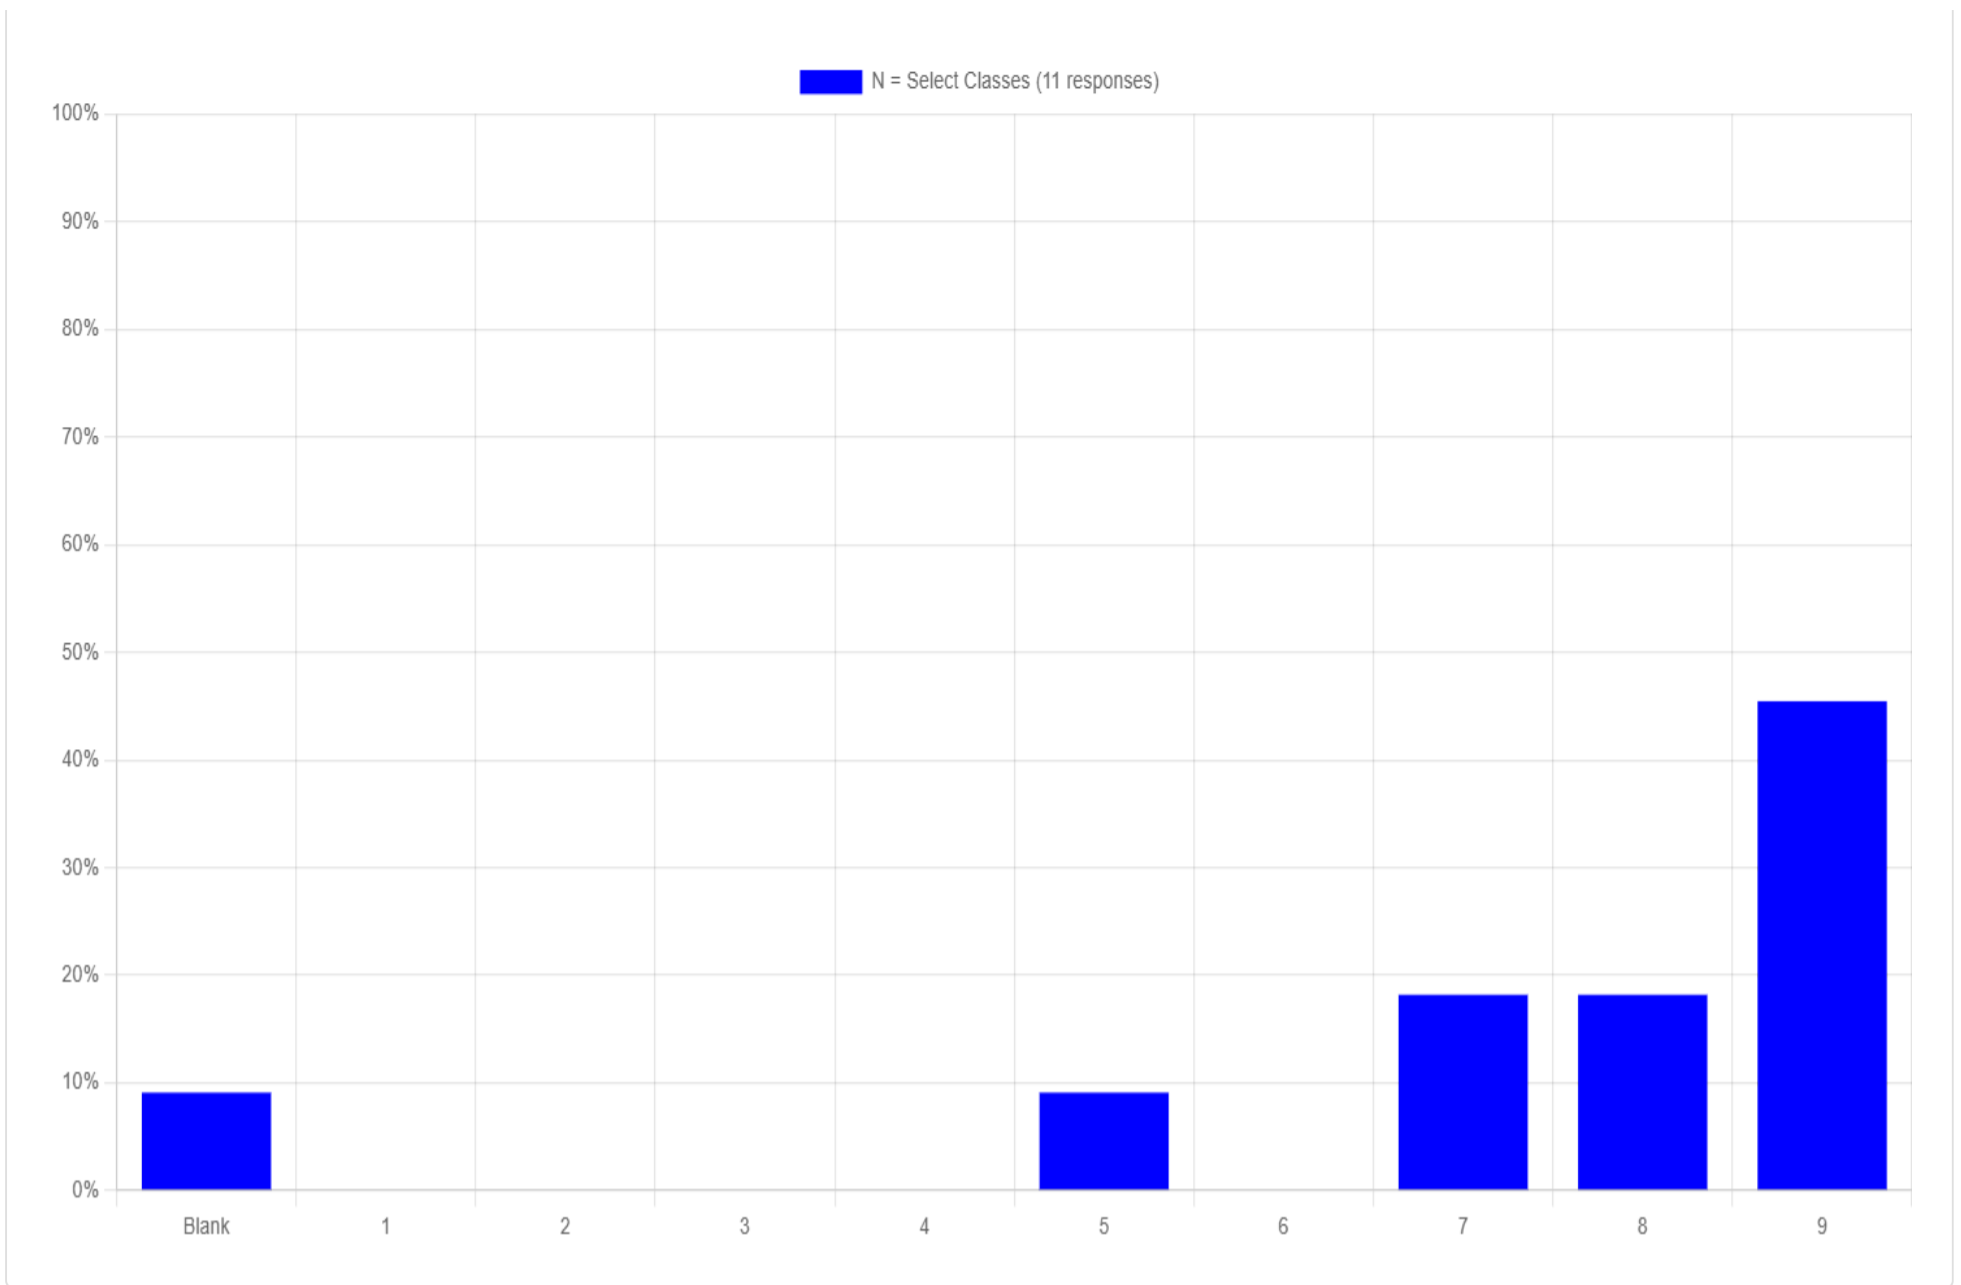

The online course curriculum was valuable.

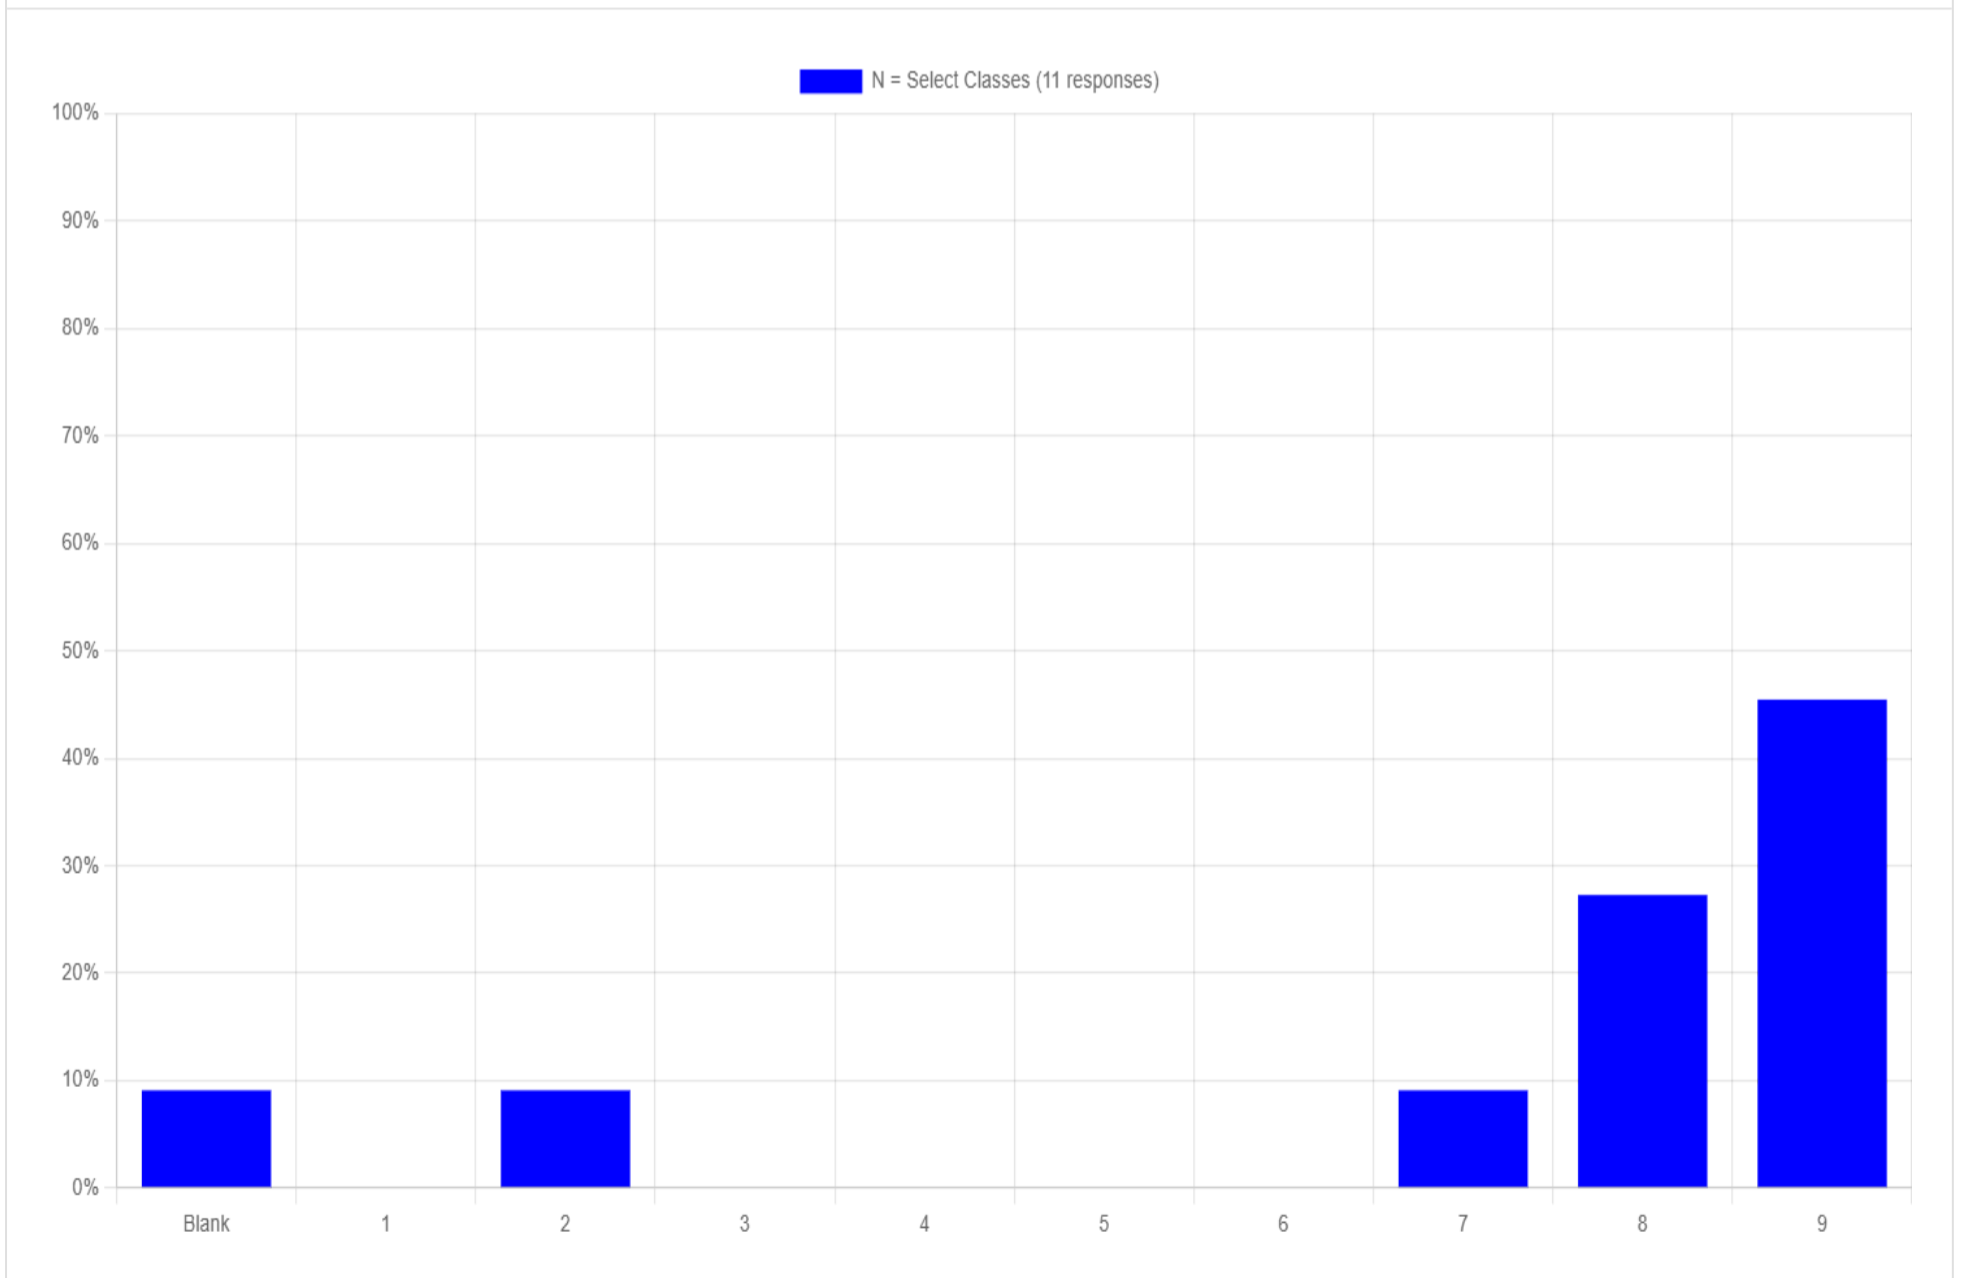

The online course curriculum was coordinated in a logical sequence.

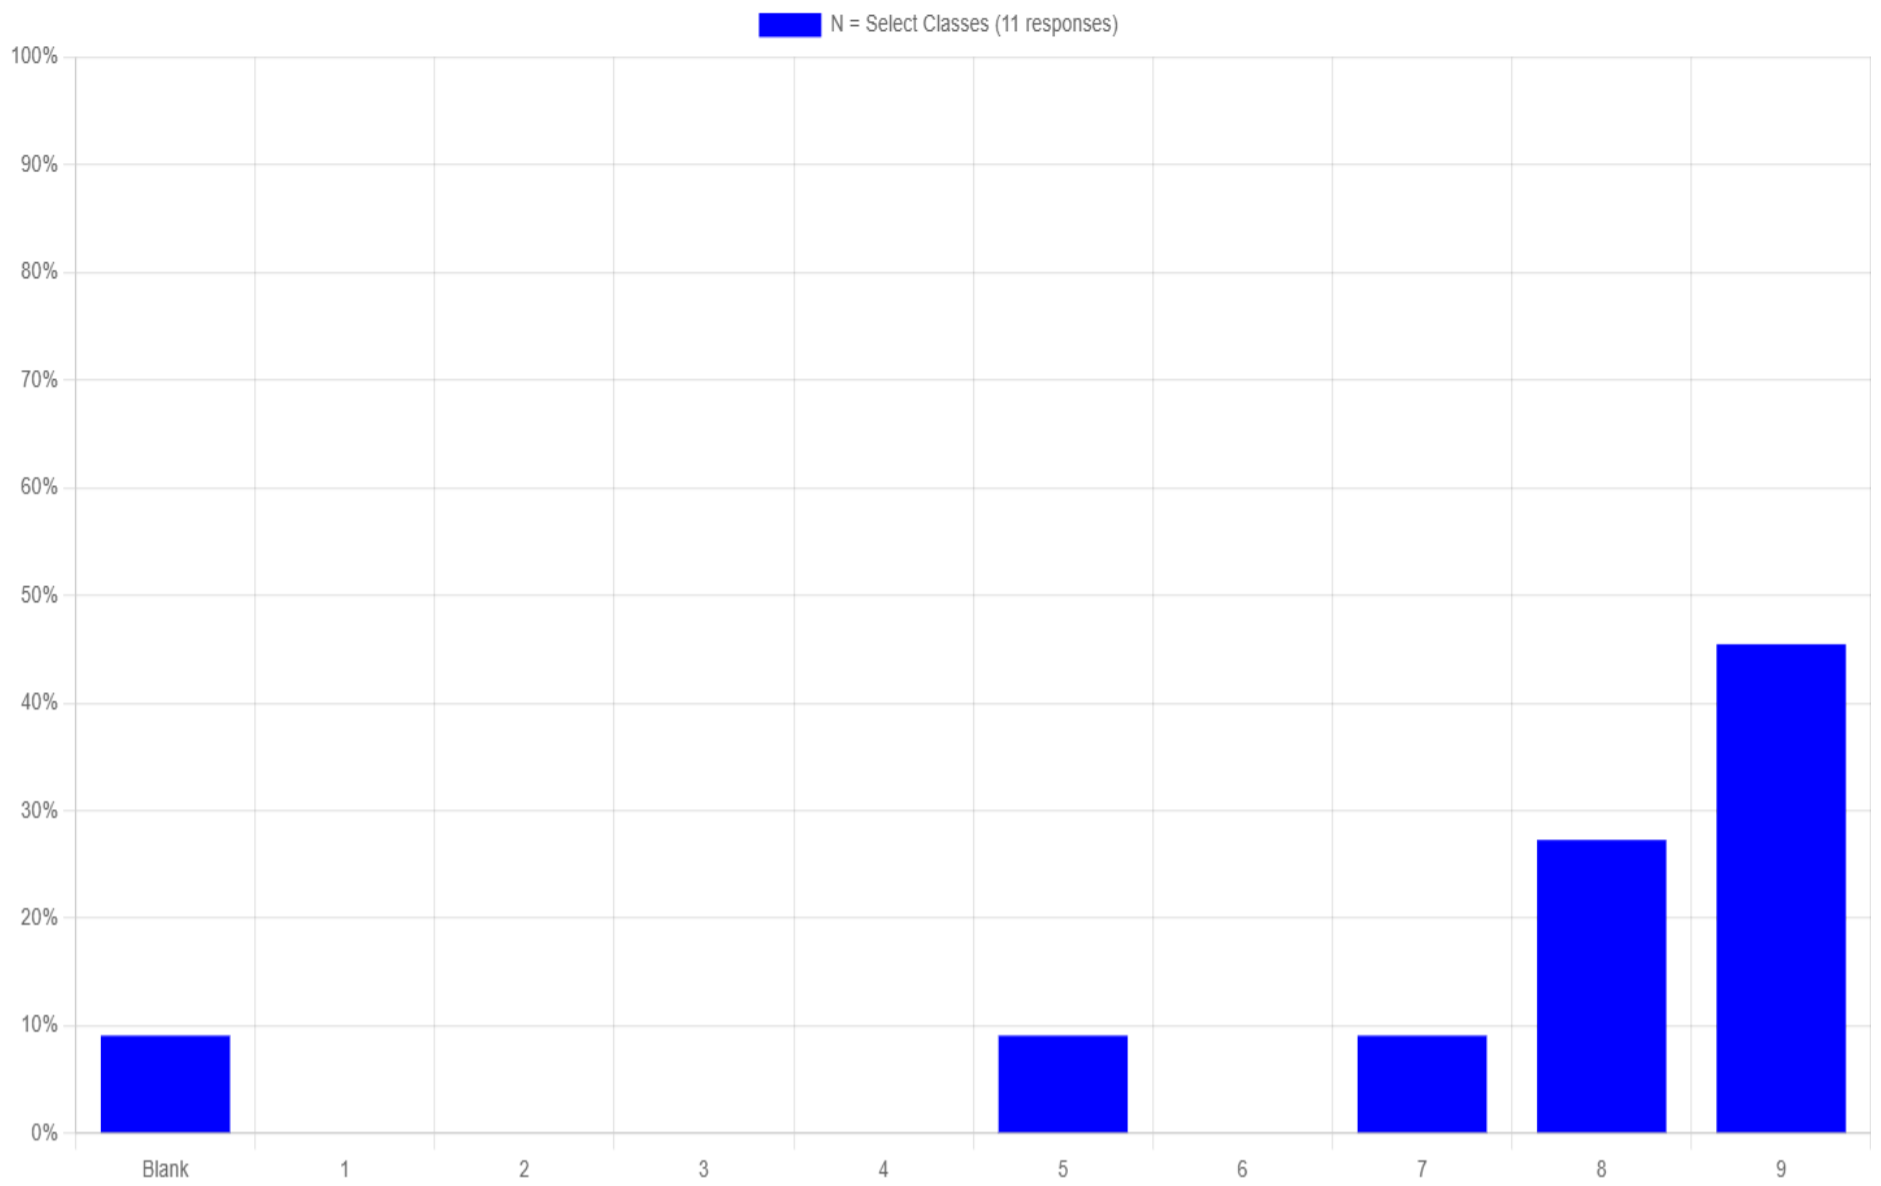

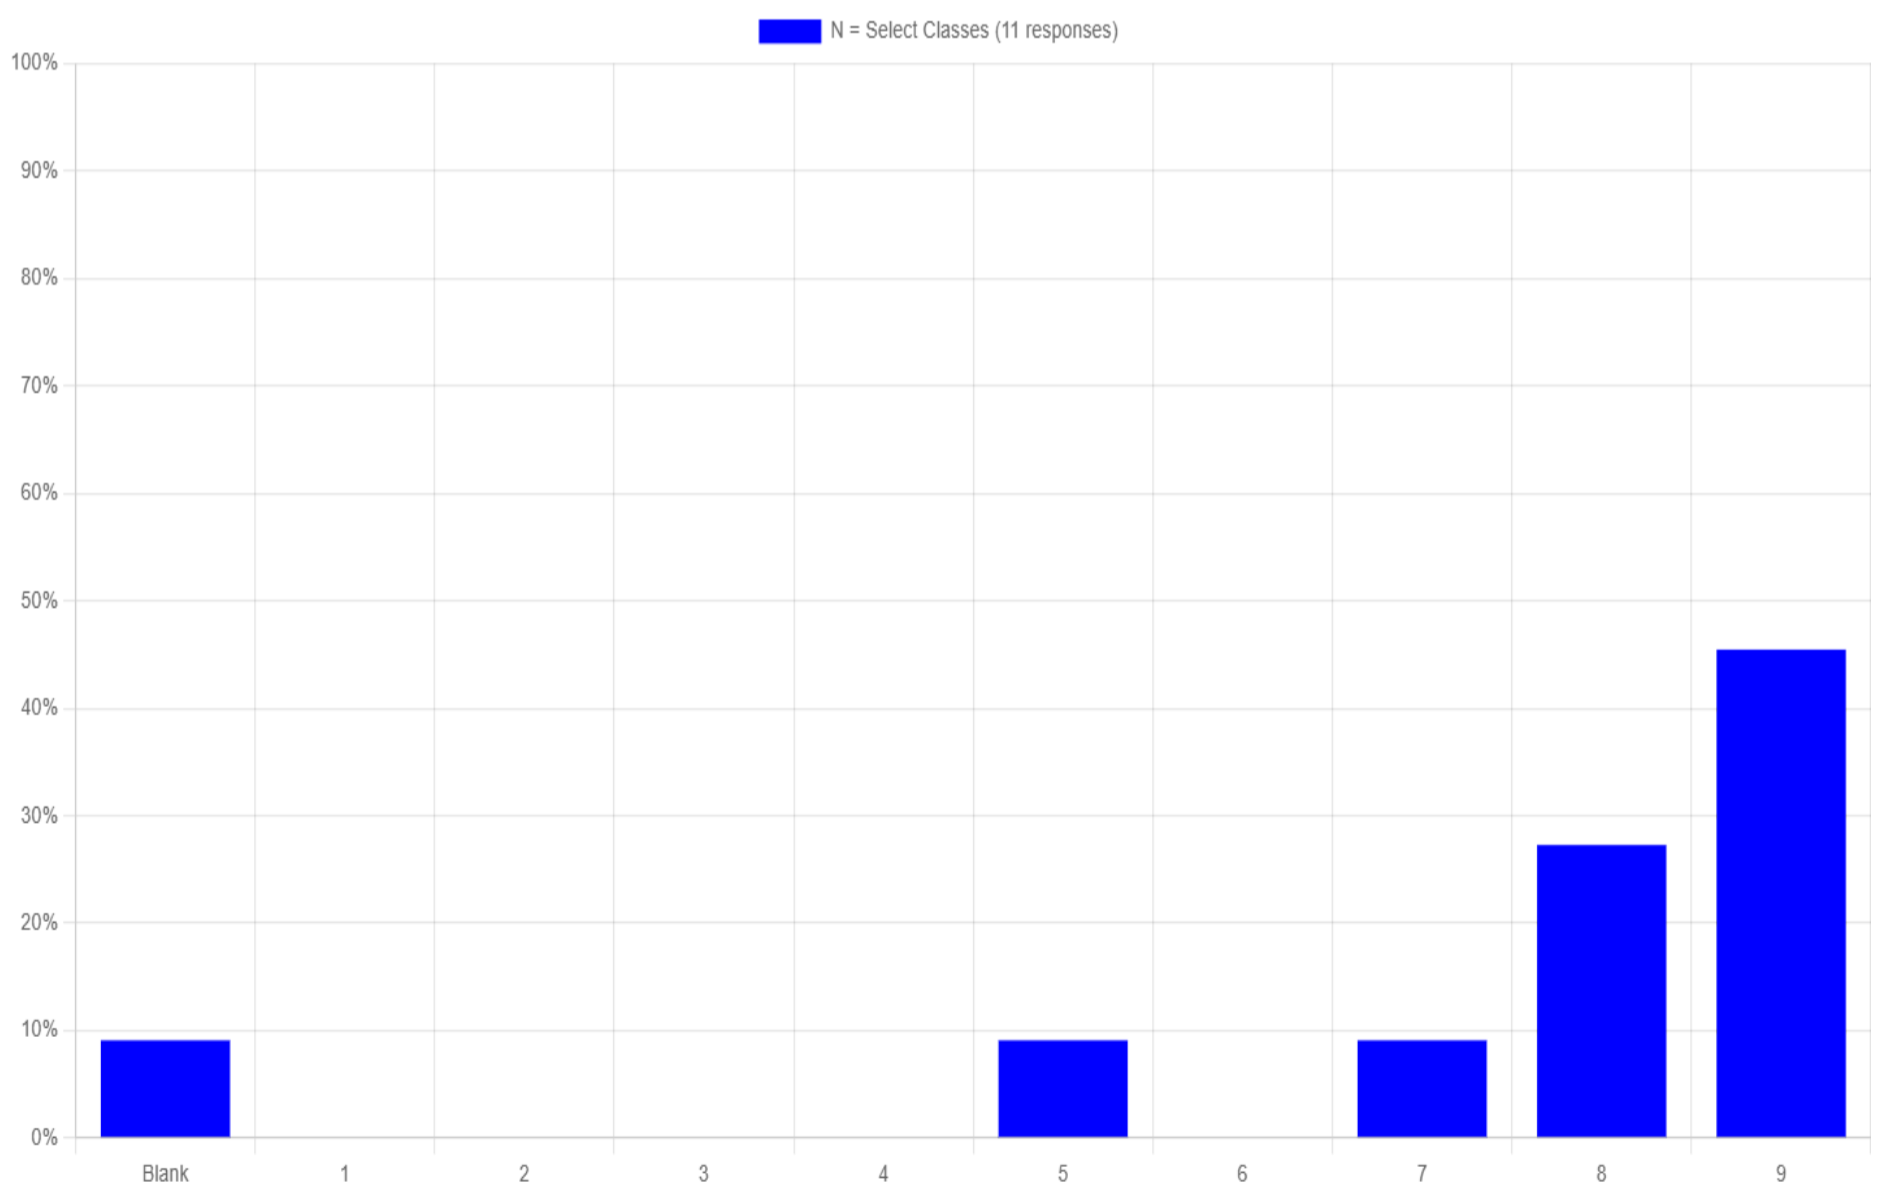

The online course curriculum was relevant to my work.

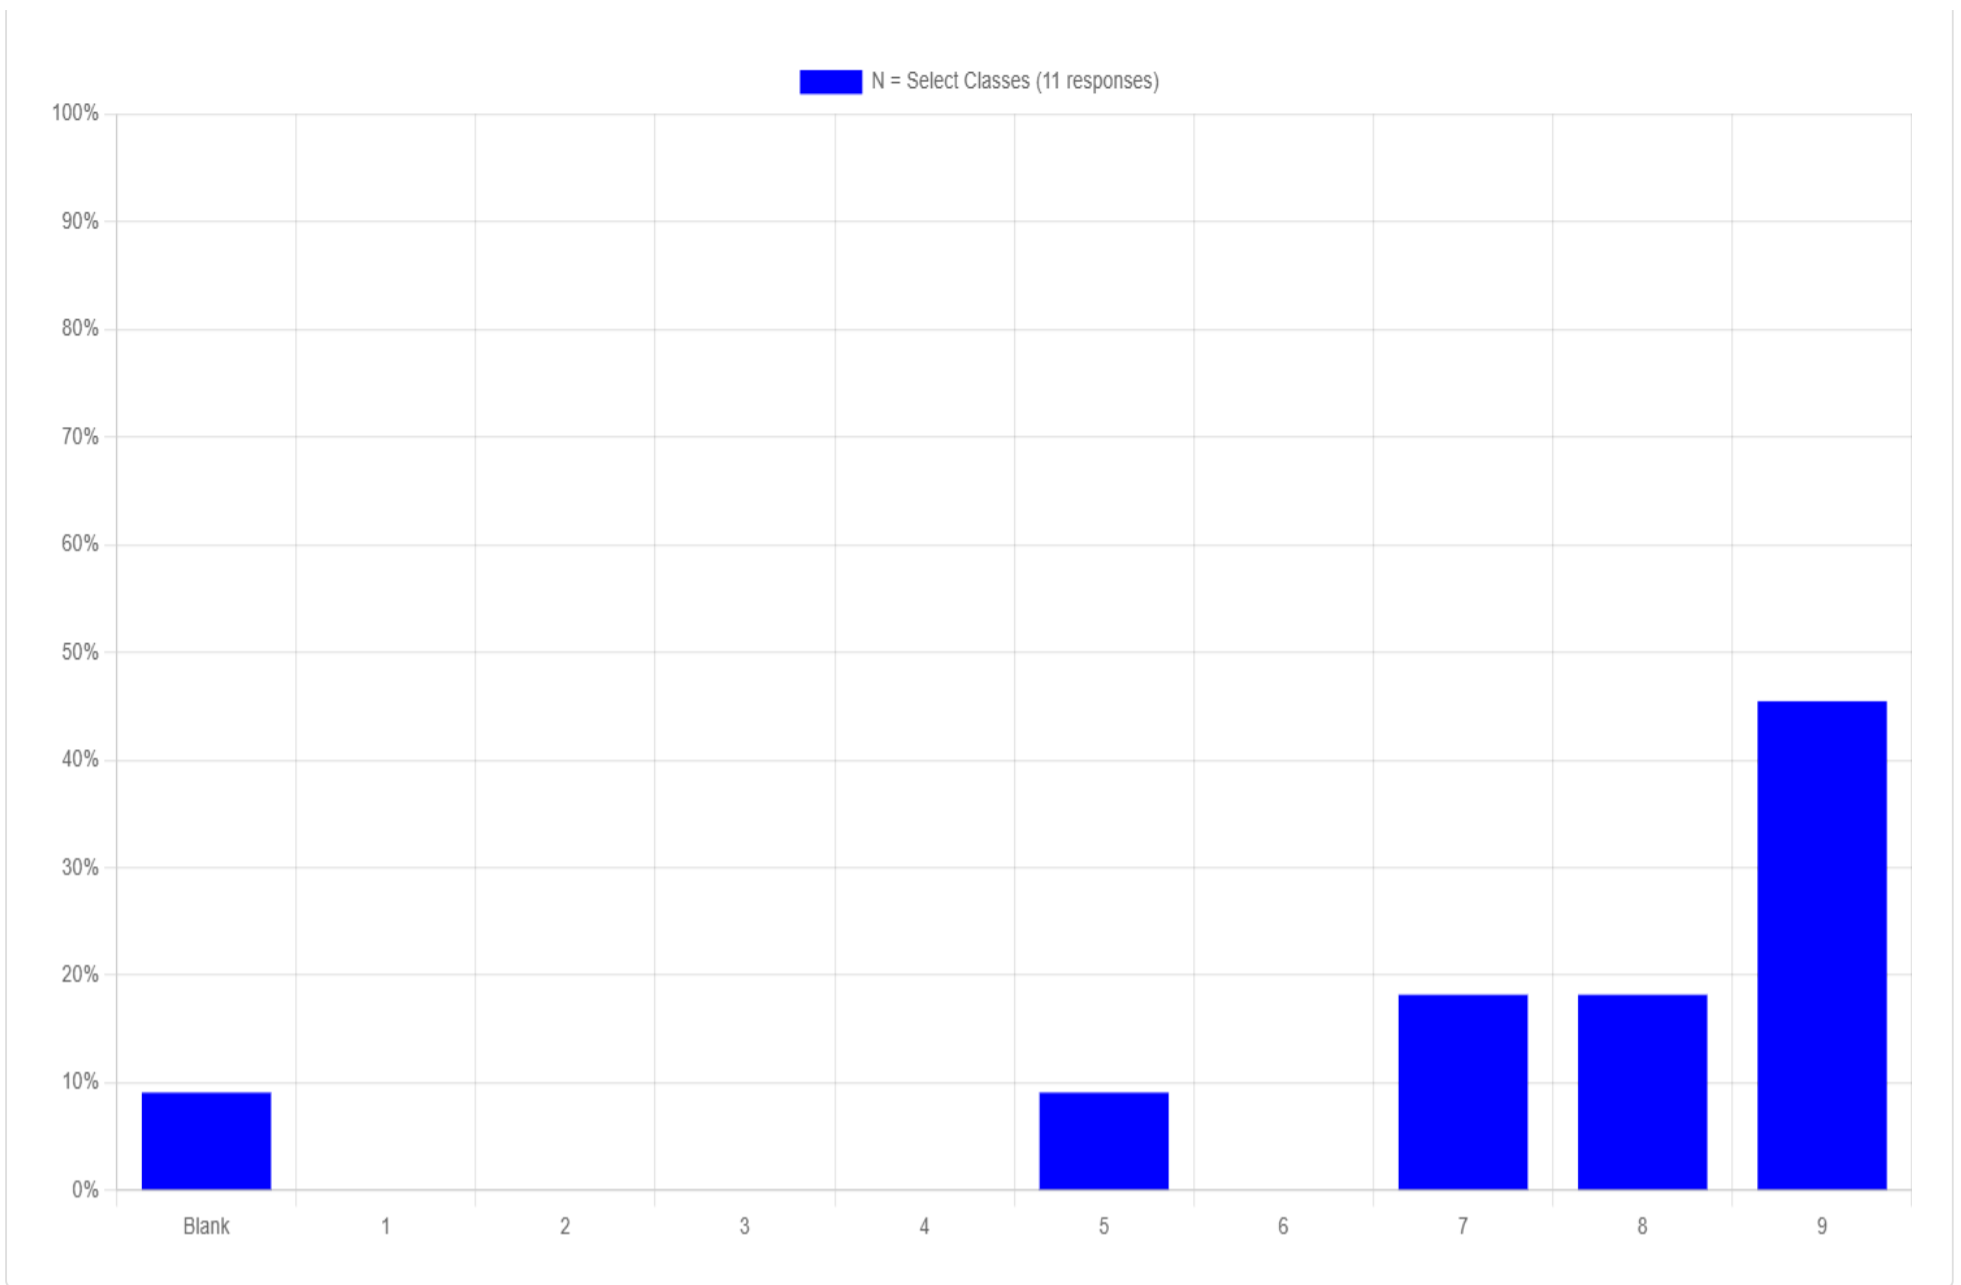

The online course curriculum was high quality.

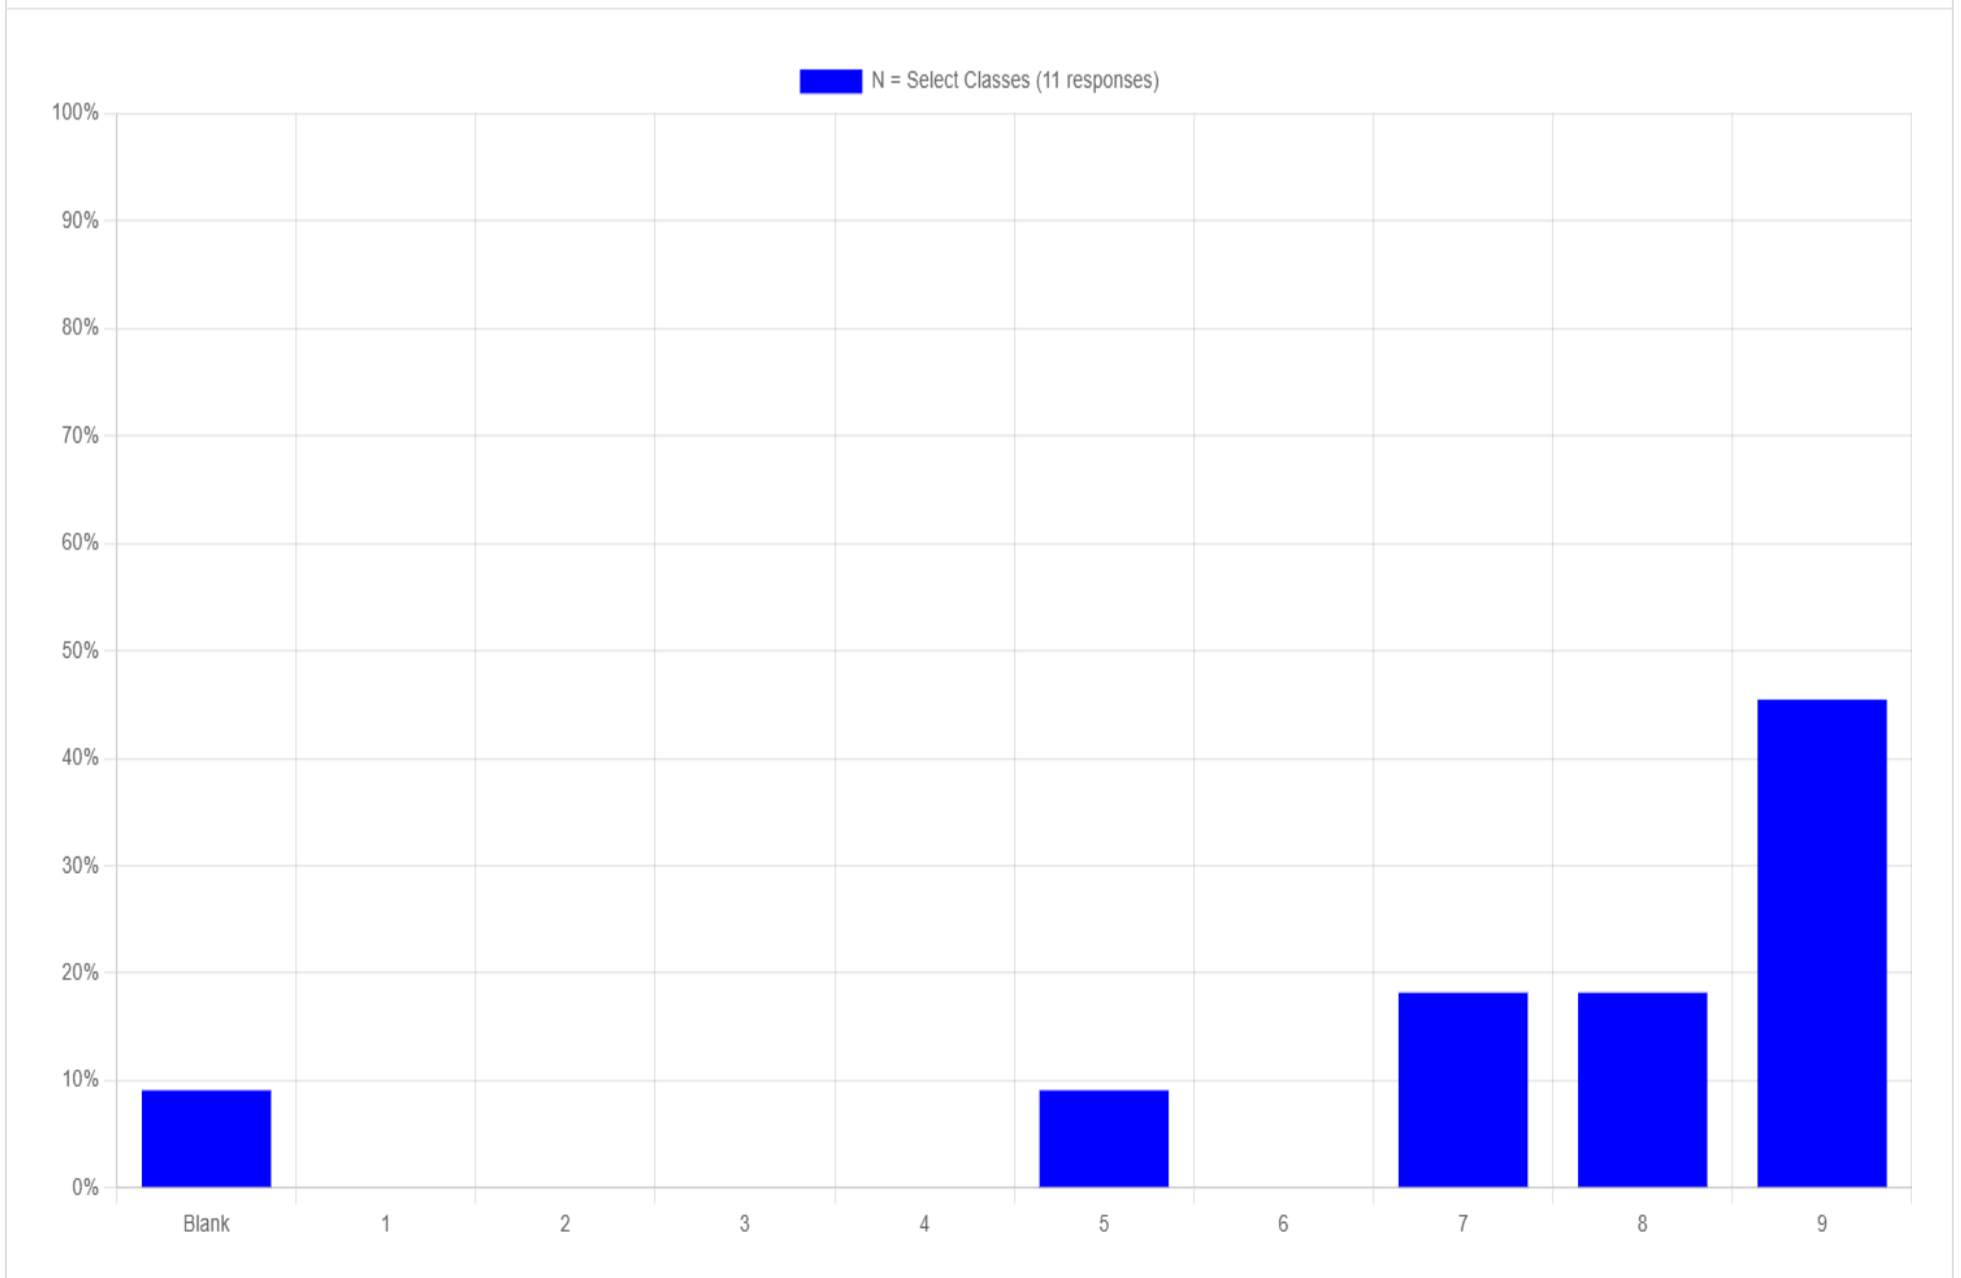

Posting of course materials on the web site contributed to my learning.

Effectiveness of education you received.

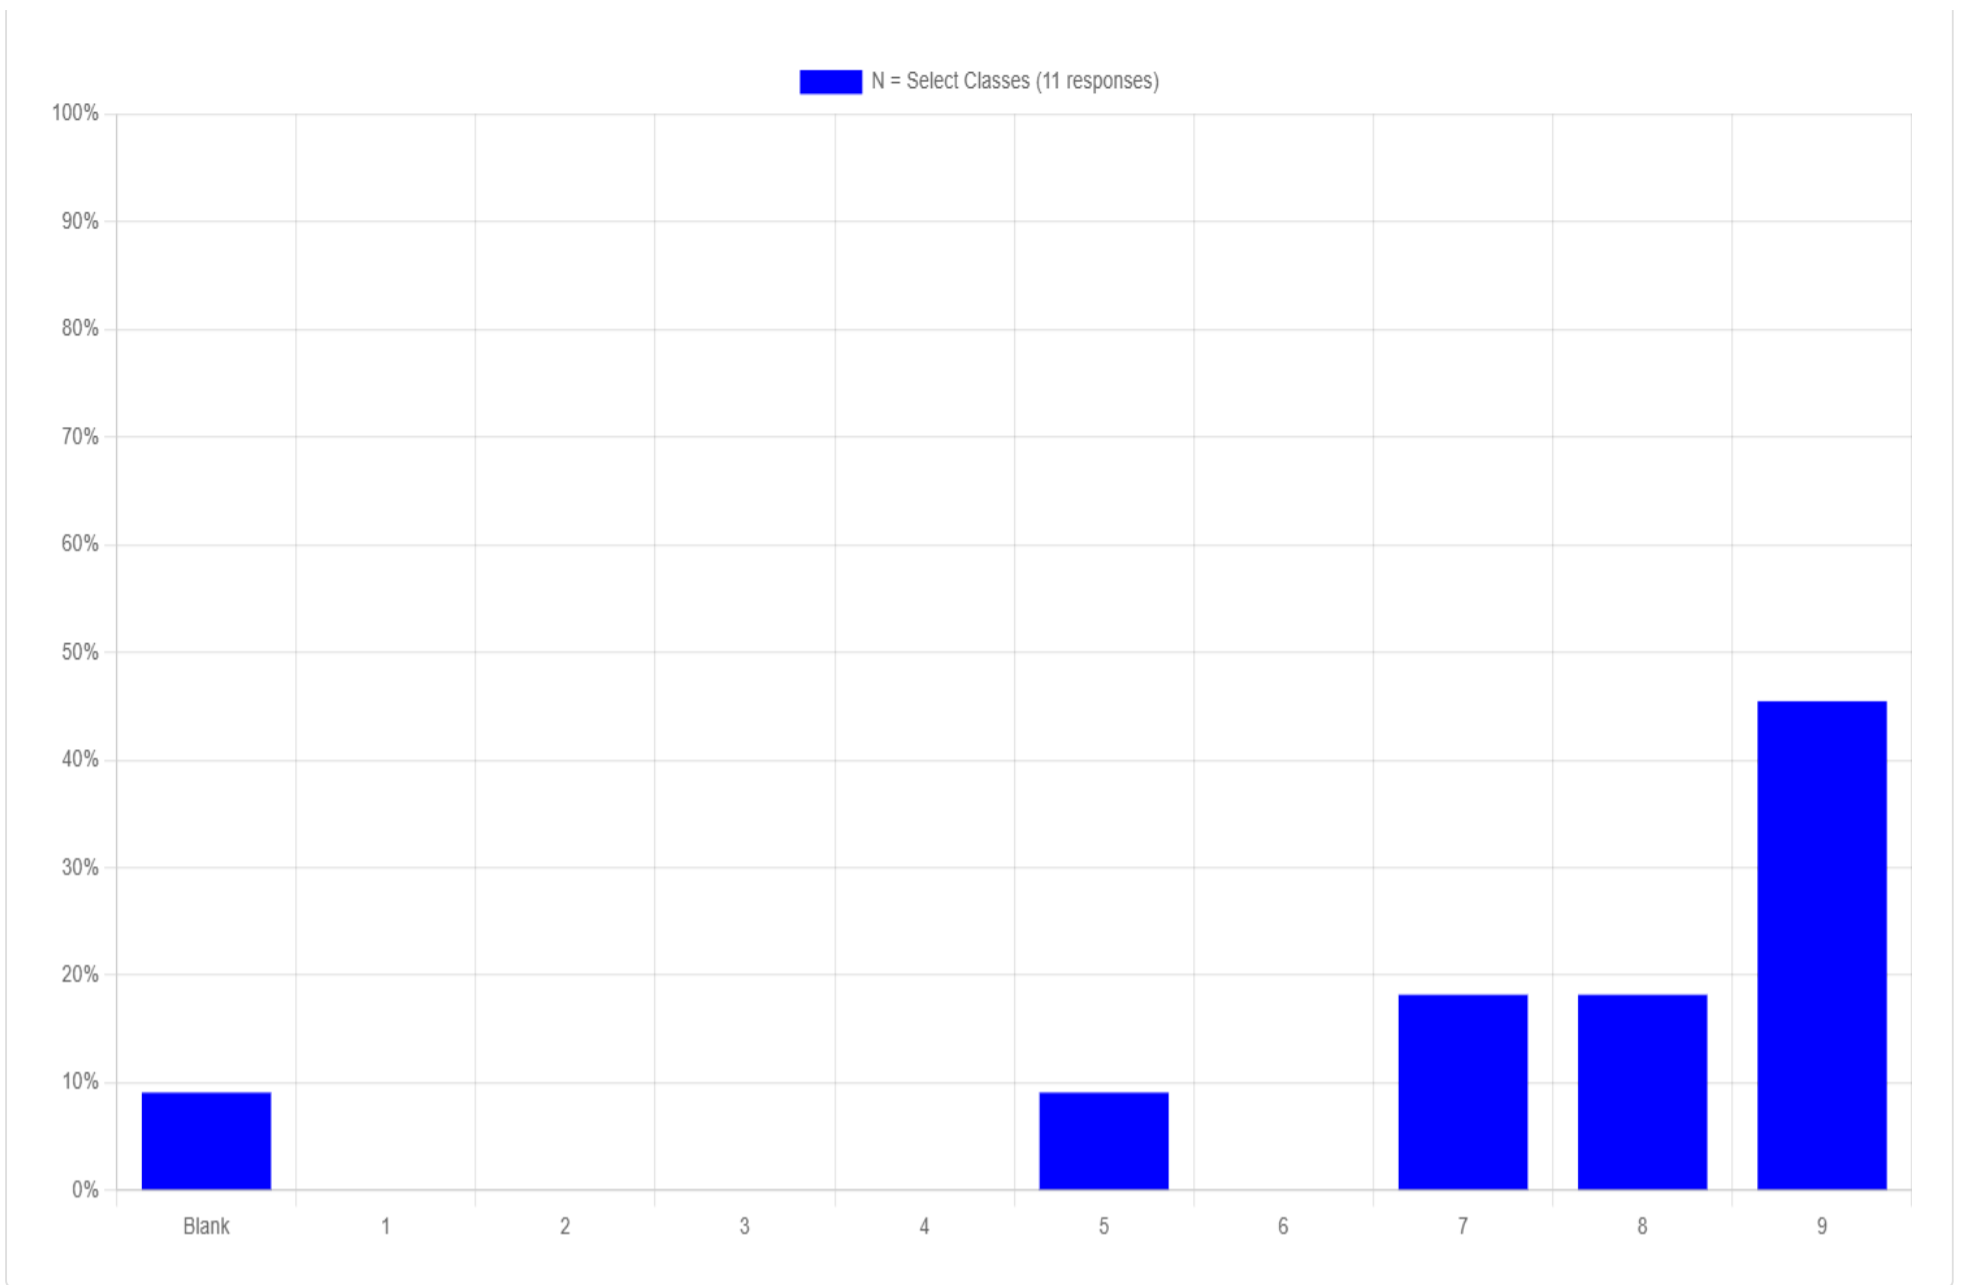

The assessment tool accurately measures course objectives.

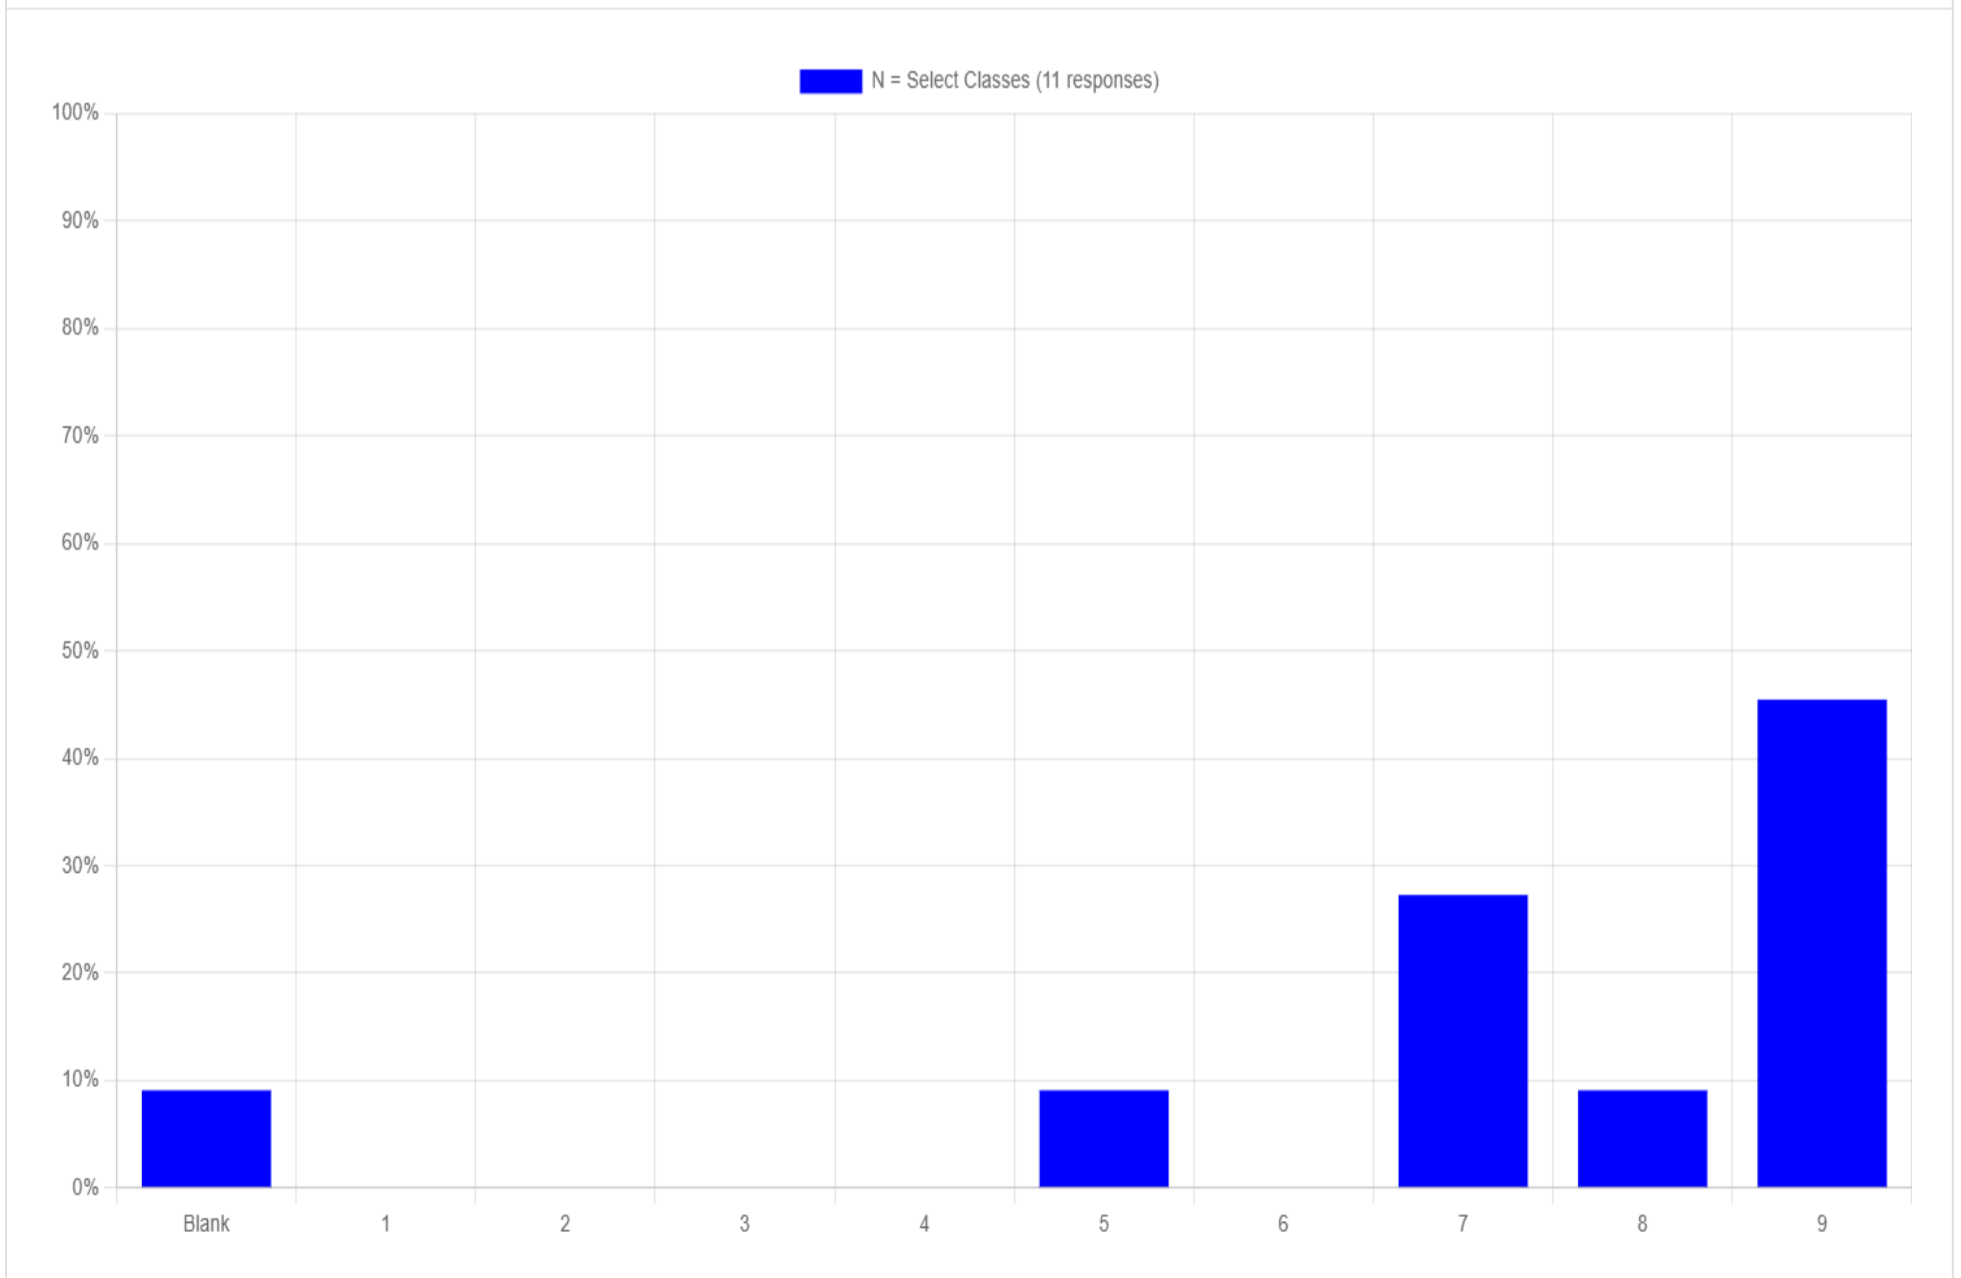

Additional Comments.

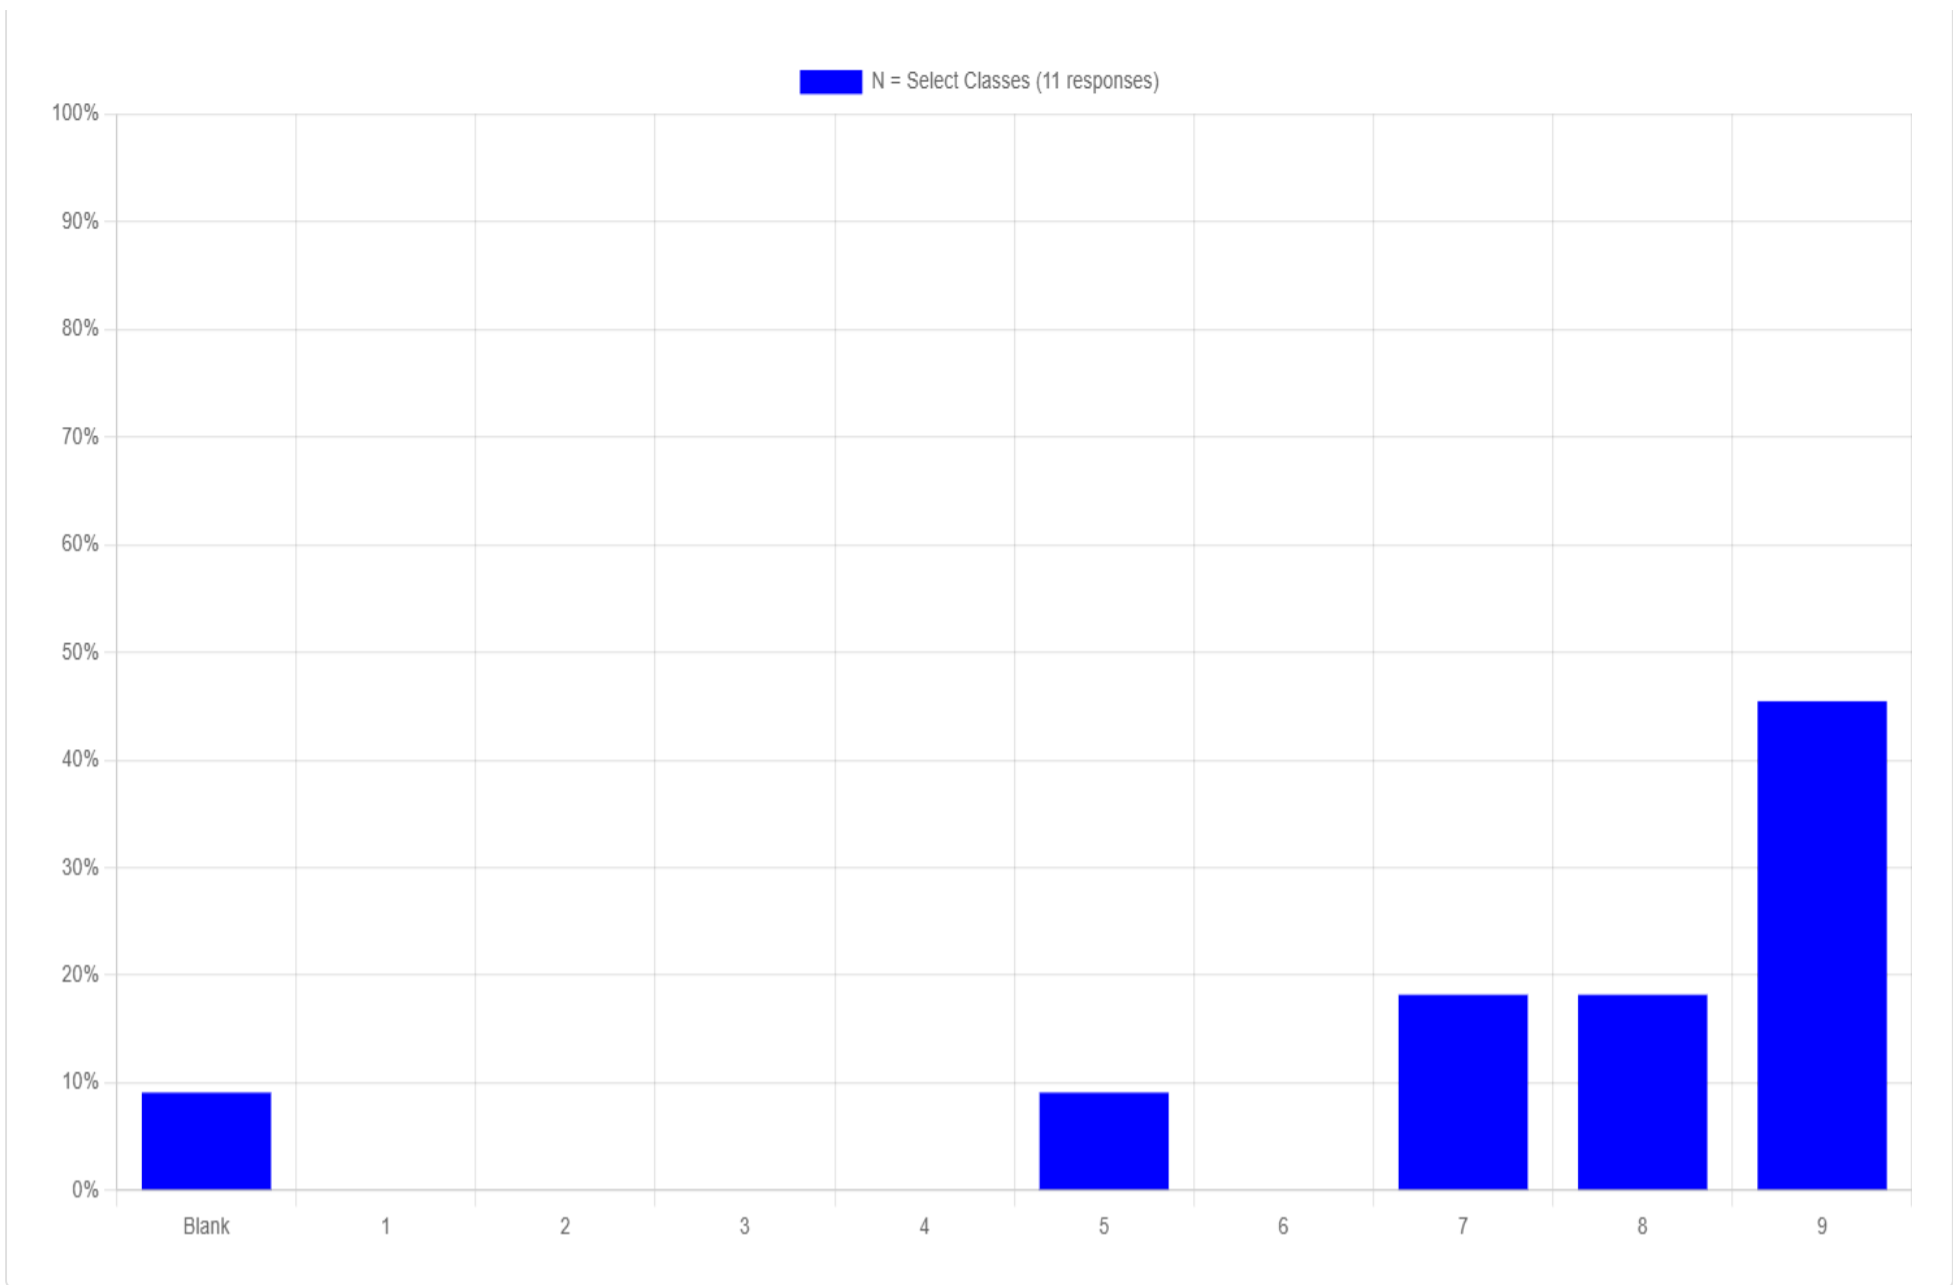

The discussion of my performance was helpful.

The debriefing experience allowed me to see my mistakes.

The debriefing was completed in a professional, non-personally threatening manner.

Additional Comments.

WISER website usability.

