

Transform Challenging Conversations into Meaningful Connections—Build Your Skills This Fall!

Death & Dying Series

for Healthcare Professionals

Free CEUs Available!

Enhancing Conversation Skills

Starts October 9!

Now in its fourth year, this free virtual education series is designed to build your confidence and skills in having meaningful conversations with seriously ill patients and their loved ones. Led by Course Director Judith Black, MD, MHA, our expert interdisciplinary faculty will guide you through thoughtful discussions and practical strategies for addressing serious illness, death, and dying—offering a supportive, low-pressure environment for learning alongside a diverse group of professionals.

Free CME, CNE, and social work credits available!

Dates & Times

Thursdays, October 9 through November 6
3:30 to 5:30 pm

Location

All sessions will be held virtually via Zoom.

Who Should Join

- Current Pennsylvania-based practitioners in healthcare-related disciplines seeking to improve their comfort and competence in having conversations around serious illness
- Open to professionals from medicine, nursing, social work, counseling, pharmacy, rehabilitation, ethics, pastoral care, law, and more!

Spaces Limited—Apply Today!

Please complete the online application and upload a short personal statement of interest.

Apply here or scan QR code:

<https://bit.ly/DDSeriesApp>

Application Deadline:

Wednesday, September 24

Questions?

For more information, please contact
Lisa George, george@jhcf.org

Jewish Healthcare
Foundation