Transform Challenging Conversations into Meaningful Connections—Build Your Skills This Fall!

Free CEUs Available!

Death & Dying Series for Healthcare Professionals

Enhancing Conversation Skills

Starts September 22!

Now in its fifth year, this virtual education series is designed to build your confidence and skills in having meaningful conversations with seriously ill patients and their loved ones. Course Director Judith Black, MD, MHA, and expert faculty will guide you through thoughtful discussions and explore practical strategies for addressing serious illness, death, and dying—offering a supportive environment for learning alongside a diverse group of professionals.

Free CME, CNE, and social work credits available!

Dates & Times

Tuesdays, September 22 through October 20, 3:30 to 5:30 pm*

*Session on Sept. 29 will run 4–6 pm due to speaker scheduling

Location

All sessions will be held virtually via Zoom.

Who Should Join

Current Pennsylvania-based healthcare professionals seeking to improve their comfort and competence in having serious illness and end-of-life conversations Spaces Limited—Apply Today!

Apply here or scan QR code:
https://bit.ly/3St6xEz

Application Deadline:
Thursday, September 10

Questions?

For more information, please contact
Lisa George, george@jhf.org

Jewish Healthcare Foundation